of the Press-Record
Now in its third week, a strike in Granite City School District Nine continues to frustrate the board, the employees and the public. Start-of-term faculty workshops reset for today were rescheduled for tomorrow when picketing continued this morning. Pupil attendance will follow by 24 hours the actual conducting of workshops.

TEACHERS VOTED by a reported margin of 251 to 40 last night at the Granite City Township Building to continue their work stoppage. They turned down an offer contained in a three-page letter signed Friday night by all seven members of the Board of Education, Local 743, American Federation of Teachers, is willing to accept a pay freeze this year but only if a raise is assured for the following year; there also was no raise in last year's contract. The district says it cannot guarantee added spending if it would imbalance the already perilous financial outlook. Urging that teachers report to their schools, Board Pres. David Partney said Sunday night the disagreement is beginning to harm students.

PARTNEY CALLED a special board meeting for 7:30 tonight in the hope that the board can "do everything in its power" to get schools open for the 1984-85 year. The strike is legal under an Illinois law effective this fall. Bethalto school officials—a strike there ended today—talked about trying to hire substitute teachers, but there has been no such decision locally. Many teachers seek work in this region, but locating enough substitutes with

Politte accused of bombing union office with grenade

Accused of throwing a hand grenade into a union headquarters building here, William J. Politte, 41, of Slough Road, Granite City, was arrested Thursday by federal authorities. He also was booked for possessing and transporting the grenade.

If convicted, he could face up to 40 years in prison and a $40,000 fine. LOCAL 520 of the Operating Engineers, 520 Engineers Road, Mitchell, was the target of the grenade at 11 p.m. Friday, April 27. No injuries occurred. The grenade, thrown through a window into the office of Business Manager Dale Parkinson, damaged desks, files, walls, the ceiling and the roof. There was only slight fire damage. Members of the union include Madison County sheriff deputies, jailers and dispatchers, and operators of heavy construction equipment in a 16-county area of Illinois. Politte is described as closely linked to Operating Engineers Local 513 in St. Louis. HE IS ONE of seven men indicted on various charges by a federal

Second trial in chainsaw killing

A chiropractor accused of killing a former Granite Cityan, Mrs. Joyce Monahan Klindt, will stand trial a second time.

The jury failed to reach a verdict in the first trial of Dr. James Klindt, 36, at Keokuk, Iowa. He will be retried for first-degree murder within 90 days.

The Klindts resided in Davenport, Iowa. The alleged slaying occurred March 17 or 18, 1983.

District Judge James Haverkamp declared a mistrial last week. The jury had remained deadlocked after 32 hours of deliberation, and Foreman H. Wayne Nelson said the jurors no longer were in a frame of mind conducive to discussing their differences.

The chiropractor was accused of dismembering his wife's body with a chainsaw and throwing the pieces in the Mississippi River.

The jury foreman told the judge, "We haven't changed much all the way through. After awhile, we just ran out of things to say to one another. We did our best, but we really couldn't reach a decision." Nelson declined to say the margin of voting by the jury of seven men and five women.

He added that many of the jurors had conflicting views on what Judge Haverkamp meant by "reasonable doubt."

"I think some of us felt he was guilty, but the state didn't come up with enough evidence to prove the charge beyond doubt. The problem wasn't so much in the evidence, but in the definition of reasonable doubt," Scott County Attorney William Davis said. "You can be sure we'll try it again, and as soon as possible."

Prior to the four days of jury deliberation, testimony and evidence were presented for three weeks.

The final item of testimony was the defendant's tape-recorded vow to "get rid of" his wife. The argument on March 16 was recorded by Mrs. Klindt, a day before she disappeared.

Prosecutors played the tape Aug. 25 before resting their case. The defense then put its only witness on the stand. Bart Klindt, 14, testified that his father told him his mother was leaving home for two weeks.

Defense Attorney Larry Scalsie said other witnesses he had planned to call were all summoned to testify by the prosecution. In the taped conversation, the doctor proposed to divide the couple's property so that a divorce could proceed. She repeatedly questioned him on other issues, including custody of their son.

Mrs. Klindt asked why her husband spit on her. He replied, "I'll just spit on you again, Joyce. Do you want me to spit on you right now?" She asked why he stuffed her head down on the bed and hurt her, and he said, "I was trying to kill you, yeah."

She next said, "You had my head down in the covers and told me you were going to cut me up into little pieces and I was going to die." He replied, "Yeah, that's dramatics." Mrs. Klindt asked several times why he was going ahead with a divorce without her knowledge and trying to "screw" her. He responded that he planned to give her "half of everything, and that's not the screws."

On the recording he frequently told her, "I hate you" and "I hate your guts." He called her several obscene names while she referred to him as "honey" or "Jim."

The tape ended with the doctor storming out of their home, saying "I have to get rid of you."

Authorities contend a torso pulled out of the river is part of her body. A new type of genetic testing was utilized to make that allegation, even though little could be determined by more traditional tests.

The defendant said his wife left the area because of their marital disputes and probably is still alive. However, no one has been contacted by her in the ensuing year and one-half.

Time to reopen the GC schools

Summer is over and students are returning to school, except in Granite City. It is high time to end the teachers' strike and get Granite City students back in school.

While the adults argue over money and other matters, the students are the ones suffering. Athletes have missed their first games, which could cost them valuable scholarships. They have been forced to forfeit the games, which will hurt the season records and could affect many scholarships. In addition, college scouts are unable to see them play and may not return later in the season.

SENIORS COULD be especially harmed by the strike since they should be in the process of filling out admission forms now for next year and applying for scholarships. Without their counselors on duty, many are forced to delay while other seniors claim the available money and openings. In addition, many seniors need to start the school year on time so they can complete the year and get summer jobs before all the jobs are taken by those who graduated earlier in the spring.

Any further delays will jeopardize homecoming, the homecoming play and other associated activities.

It is no wonder that students were preparing to picket the school board office this morning, not to take sides in the dispute but to urge both sides to get the schools open.

BAND STUDENTS also are protesting the delay (see the Sports On the Run column in today's Sports pages).

While we at the Press-Record have not been involved in the day-to-day negotiations, all indications are that both sides have agreed there will be no pay hikes for the teachers this year. Discussions center on next year, and other issues.

We agree there are issues yet to be worked out, but with the central issue, wages, agreed upon, there is no reason school cannot resume while the talks continue. Teachers can teach under their old contracts until a new agreement is hammered out.

While THE teachers may feel the strike is the only way to exert pressure on the school board to give in to their demands, we feel talks will likely be more productive after school starts, without the pressure. Given the financial strain the school district is undergoing, complete and open discussions with the teachers are necessary to see that the teachers receive everything the district can reasonably afford. That will take time to work out and time is one thing the students don't have now.

It's time both sides remembered what they entered the educational field for—the welfare of the students. That welfare is being badly harmed.

For the sake of the students, it's time to reopen the Granite City schools.

Weber lawsuit stays alive

A $31 million lawsuit filed by Madison County State's Attorney Don Weber against Belleville Attorney Amiel Cueto stayed alive Thursday as a Jersey County associate judge denied a motion by Cueto that the suit be dismissed. Associate Judge Thomas G. Russell rejected Cueto's argument that allegations Cueto made in a letter to Chief Circuit Judge A.A. Matoesian, county board members and other state and county officials Jan. 14, 1983, were protected by the law since they were against a public official and were privileged as part of a case Cueto was handling. Judge Russell ruled that the strongly-worded letter, which made 31 separate accusations against Weber, exceeded the scope of protection by an attorney in that the statements were neither pure opi-

Lotto ticket for free pool was a loser

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Editor

An absolutely painless way to finance a new swimming pool for Wilson Park was envisioned by the Granite City Board of Park Commissioners last week, but their hopes were dashed Saturday night.

As the Illinois State Lottery numbers were drawn Saturday night, Granite City Park District residents did not know how important that drawing could have been to them.

AT THE last park board meeting, the five commissioners chipped in 20 cents each and used the money to buy a ticket for the $8 million Lotto, pledging, that if the ticket won, Granite City would get its new swimming pool—FREE.

Alas, fate was not on their side, so the pool issue will go to the voters in the form of a bond issue on the November ballot.

UNITED WAY SUNDAY. The Tri-City Park Tabernacle choir perform several selections at the Wilson Park ice rink Sunday afternoon during the Tri-Cities Area United Way's kick-off event for its fall campaign. The annual breakfast, marking the official start of the fund-raising drive, headed this year by Eric Robertson, will be Tuesday morning at the Granite City Township Hall.

YOUTH TRIES TO OUTFRIN POLICE ON MOTORCYCLE

Noticing a three-wheel motorcycle in the middle of Worthen Park at Maryville Road and Parkview Drive last week, an officer attempted to stop cyclist, who fled from the scene. The youth, 16, was pursued by the officer along Parkview and Westmoreland Drive, and across Stratford Lane and Wilshire Drive returning to Stratford and Westmoreland, where he was taken into custody. He was later released to his parents on notice to appear for a hearing on charges of fleeing and attempting to elude a police officer, not having a valid driver's license, disobeying a stop sign and not having a valid registration.

Wilkinson, 32, of 25 Jeanette Drive was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center recently, or treatment of injuries suffered when her southbound car skidded in a circle in the 2300 block of Fehling Road, its rear hitting an oak tree near the northbound lane. Sarcastic letter surprises Petrillo

Granite City Treasurer Nick Petrillo received a letter Thursday which he said "surprised" him and he said he wanted the public made aware of it.

The letter, signed by Assistant State's Attorney Marshall H.

pected to be issued until this week, leaving the tax collecting job up to the county treasurer exclusively.

In the letter, Smith states, "Apparently we'll have a hassle that will never die."

"I know we have had differences in the past as to who collects when, but I think one thing is clear and that is that you have a right to collect until Sept. 1 and after that time the county collector is to do the collecting."

"Unfortunately, we don't have any tax bills, even at this late date, so there is nothing for you to collect, and I guess you can treat your present salary as a bonus for work well done in the past. That's not as good, of course, as winning the Illinois State lottery, but it's a lot better than what I've been getting paid."

"If the taxpayers wonder why they're paying your salary, you can tell them that if the county does any better, there may be some bills for you to collect next year, and if you get any complaints, I'll tell them that the government paid me for soldiering four years in World War II and they didn't get their money's worth either, although, like you, I tried."

Petrillo received a copy of the letter because, as city treasurer, he also serves as Granite City Township's tax collector. He disagreed, however, that he is paid for the collector's job. "I get a salary as city treasurer. I don't get a cent for collecting taxes, as an assistant state's attorney, he (Smith) should know that," Petrillo stated.

Hospice to conduct training sessions

Hospice of Madison County depends on volunteers to provide its services. This month, training sessions are being conducted to train individuals to become Hospice volunteers.

All four sessions must be completed in order for a volunteer to be awarded a certificate. Director of Volunteers Lois Lybarger also provides make-up sessions in her office.

Interested individuals are encouraged to contact Mrs. Lybarger at 798-3488. However, the training may begin by simply attending the first session. Registration begins at 6:15 p.m. today, Sept. 10, at St. John United Methodist Church, 201 St. Louis St., Edwardsville. All four training sessions will be at the church, each from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Lybarger points out, "We use our volunteers in many different ways: direct patient care, helping patient families, running errands, clerical help in the office, grief counseling and community education. Not everyone has to be involved with direct patient care."

The first training session, today, will include an introduction to Hospice of Madison County, a discussion of Hospice concepts, philosophy and structure, and an overview of Hospice staff and volunteer roles in the program.

The second training session will be Wednesday, Sept. 12. This session will cover medical aspects of Hospice care and spiritual aspects of nursing care of Hospice patients.

The third session, on Monday, Sept. 17, will cover exploration of personal feelings about death and dying and will feature a panel discussion by Hospice volunteers, as well as a question-and-answer period.

The fourth and final session on Wednesday, Sept. 19, will cover bereavement and grief, to be followed by a question-and-answer period, as well as an evaluation and conclusion.

This is 'Write Your Grandparents' Week

Governor James R. Thompson has proclaimed this week as "Write Your Grandparents' Week" in Illinois. Grandparents' Day was yesterday, but the whole week has been designated as a week to honor grandparents.

The governor's office, the Department on Aging and the Illinois State Board of Education are urging elementary and junior high schools in the state to promote classroom projects encouraging students to write letters to their grandparents or other elderly persons.

According to Janet S. Ottwell, director of the Illinois Department of Aging, "Programs that bring the young and old together provide younger generations a living link with the history of our families and state. They also give older persons a chance to play a vital role in the lives of their grandchildren."

Q: We've been following your advice dealing with personal budgeting. However, I saw a budget plan laid out as percentages of monthly take-home pay. Are you aware of this budget method, and is it effective, in your opinion?

A: We're sorry, but we haven't seen the specific budgeting plan you mentioned. However, it might be of interest that a number of personal financial consultants warn against "percentage budgeting", and advise people, instead, to budget by priorities. This means setting up sound priorities, then sticking to them. These priorities should be your long term financial objectives. Further, these advisors are unanimous that your first priority should be to "pay yourself". If you fail to do this, you'll never save. As one expert has said, "Pay yourself first, and somehow you manage to figure out how to pay everyone else. If you do it the other way, you'll pay all your debts and obligations and find there's nothing left."

Chicago bans leaded gasoline

It was with a bit of surprise that we greeted the news that Chicago has acted to ban sales of leaded gasoline citywide. We had suspected the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency was about to propose such a restriction, but no city has ever before attempted to ban the sale of leaded gas.

Possibly the reason no city wanted to touch the topic is that lengthy and expensive court fights could follow such a ban. The Illinois Gasoline Dealers Association already has said it will go to court to stop it.

Recent evidence that lead in the air from automobile exhaust harms the newborn, pregnant women and the children they are carrying, young folks and even adults has prompted calls for an end to the manufacture and use of leaded gasoline in the U.S.

With the backing of Mayor Harold Washington,

Chicago — on a 36-7 vote of the city council — has taken a bold step in that direction. The ban could go into effect in December, depending on the speed and outcome of the court challenge.

We will watch the court fight with interest. While motorists driving older automobiles may have to pay a little more for unleaded gasoline, the health benefits may be worth it. Mental retardation, asthma and damage to the central nervous system of children are too high a price to pay to save a few cents a gallon.

Besides, once all refineries have changed their equipment to produce only unleaded gasoline, the supply should be plentiful and, according to common economics, the price should drop.

However, seldom do common economics or common sense apply when it comes to the pricing of gasoline.

Tragedy points out Armer transfer problem

To the Editor:

I recently read the unfortunate account of the Armer family whose son took his own life in the hope his family would have one less mouth to feed and thereby have an easier time.

The trial that this Army family endured is no different than that faced by numerous military families on the permanent change of station move. All military families face these problems on each directed move.

The most significant problem that they have to face is the lack of money to make a government-owned move. In fact, that the government, in its infinite wisdom, allows military members to obtain up to three months advance base pay, many of our troops could not afford to make a government-directed move. By the way, our troops are allowed to pay back this pay advance spread out over a 12-month period of time.

I wrote a letter to Congressman Melvin Price several months back and told him of this problem. I never received a reply.

Of particular note is that, by the government's own studies, a military member is reimbursed $1 for every four that he spends for a military-directed move.

I want an answer from Congressman Price and I want it to address these problems. How about it Congressman, I think that we in the military deserve an answer.

Learner says CUB will fight for consumers

To the Editor:

Illinois citizens, already reeling from an unprecedented array of utility rate hikes, are about to get shocked again.

Commonwealth Edison will likely seek a series of billion dollar rate hikes over the next several years to finance its ambitious nuclear power plant construction program. Local telephone rates will probably soar as a result of the AT&T divestiture. Most experts believe that the federal deregulation of "new" gas prices, as of Jan. 1, 1985, will lead to substantial rate increases. Unless the regulatory environment changes, no relief appears in sight.

The Illinois Citizens Utility Board, or CUB, can provide citizens with a powerful voice in the fight against spiraling rates. By hiring professional and dedicated consumer advocates, CUB offers Illinois citizens an opportunity to challenge the utilities in rate cases before the Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC), the courts and in the legislative corridors.

One reason for our high utility bills is that when Bell and Edison seek rate increases, their presentations to the ICC are backed by an army of high-priced attorneys, accountants and the best experts can buy. Paid for by the ratepayers, the community, civic and labor organizations and governmental agencies who have worked hard to challenge these rate hikes rarely have sufficient funds to hire the experts needed to counter the utilities' arguments. The ICC's staff resources also are stretched thin. According to a 1980 study by an American Bar Association committee, government regulators rely too heavily on utility-supplied information. That's one reason why the utilities usually get their way.

An effective CUB can help even up the odds. CUB is an independent consumer advocacy organization that will be controlled by its members.

CUB will hire its own team of tough, smart, advocates and experts to represent consumers against unfair or unwarranted rate hikes. Moreover, CUB has the important and unique power to communicate with Illinois consumers through inserts in utility bills.

Where can CUB make a difference? Just look at what's on the horizon for Illinois consumers.

Commonwealth Edison's and Illinois Power's multi-billion dollar rate hikes in recent years are directly linked to costly nuclear construction projects. The Byron, Braidwood and Clinton nuclear power plants have each been plagued by enormous cost overruns and long construction delays. The ICC will soon determine how much of these overruns are attributable to poor management decisions and should thus be paid by the utilities' shareholders. CUB can work to make sure that consumers are not forced to subsidize a utility's mistakes.

Illinois Bell is widely expected to seek substantial rate increases following the AT&T divestiture. That will fall hardest on residential customers. At the ICC hearings, Bell and large corporate customers will be well represented by the utilities' attorneys and economists. CUB advocates can challenge attempts to impose more than a "fair share" of the costs on residential consumers.

Many of the fundamental decisions affecting gas and telephone prices are determined in Washington, D.C., where Illinois citizens have had little regulatory representation. CUB can intervene before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, which interprets laws governing two-thirds of residential gas bills — and before the Federal Communications Commission — which is making important decisions on various new telephone charges that could be very costly to consumers.

If Illinois citizens want to promote energy conservation alternatives to high-priced gas and expensive new power plants, restrict life-threatening winter gas shut-offs, avoid paying for utility micromanagement and assure independent supervision of utility planning, we need consumer "clout." Without it, consumers themselves are likely to be consumed, if not devoured, by their utility bills.

Utility rate hikes are likely to continue, but effective consumer representation can make a significant difference in the amount. Given the enormous size of the utilities' requested increases, that difference can result in multi-million dollar savings for consumers. Standing alone, the average citizen faces insurmountable odds in challenging the utilities' lawyers, accountants, lobbyists and advertising specialists. By working together in a well-organized CUB, Illinois citizens can fight back. We can't afford not to have our own strong advocate for lower utility rates and better service.

CUB's membership drive is now underway, and bill enclosures have appeared in every residential telephone bill in July. These inserts include more information on CUB and a membership application form. CUB provides an unprecedented opportunity for consumers. Fighting the utilities' high-priced experts will be an expensive, but necessary, task. In part, CUB's effectiveness will depend on a large and diverse membership to provide the sustained advocacy and expert resources needed to challenge the seemingly never-ending rate hikes.

Many Illinois citizens worked hard to successfully create CUB. Now all consumers need to work together to insure that CUB lives up to its potential.

NASA Space Shuttle

After a two-month delay, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's recent space shuttle mission, that of the Discovery, was launched and successfully completed its 2 million mile trip. Persons shopping at Crossroads Plaza Freeway were asked if they thought the billions of dollars spent on the shuttle program are worth the expense. Their reactions follow.

Gordon Dallas, Granite City
"I'd probably have to say that yes, the shuttle is worth the expense, especially now since it's apparent that medicine — which can benefit everyone — is one of the experiments."

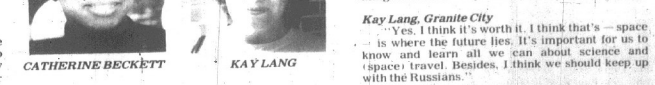

Avery Towse, Granite City
"Yes, the way they're blowing money I think it's worth it. Even if you don't consider the technical gains consider the number of people that such a program keeps employed."

Catherine Beckett, Brooklyn
"No, I don't think it's worth it. I don't know if we'll ever use the technology we get. I think the money used on it could be better spent on senior citizens or social security. I think there are a lot of things that the money could be used for instead."

Says Reagan a good actor, bad president

To the Editor:

I've often been asked by people bewildered by Ronald W. Reagan's rhetoric as contrasted to his actions "what do you think of Ronald Reagan?" My answer is simply the indisputable three-word statement that no one can deny: "He's an actor."

When you have said that you have said it all about Ronald Reagan. There's not an ounce of sincerity in his body.

Ronald Reagan is playing the best role of his career in the White House. He is the perfect image of a president.

To be a good actor, one must make the looker actually believe that the actor is really the person being portrayed. Reagan is a hopelessly vain publicity addict. Everyone who knows him knows this. Ronald Reagan can memorize his lines very well. That's why he's so much better giving a prepared speech or answers to a question his handlers know is going to be asked than he is when he is to give an answer to a question his handlers did not expect. He has no real qualifications to be president. His aim is to appear as if he has.

If he pulls it off, not only will he be re-elected, but he will take many other Republicans back into office with him.

If you look at Ronald Reagan closely behind that facade of hyped competence, you all will see in competence.

In other words, Reagan will soothe you as he leads America down the drain.

If you are convinced that America is inevitably going downhill regardless of what we do, then you may as well vote for Reagan as many more Americans will as the slip down will be more pleasant, for awhile anyway.

This brings me up to my final point. It is simply that the record indisputably proves that congress and all laws are supposed to be made by congress, will turn in a better performance with a Democrat in the White House than a soft sooper Reagan.

Fine will be $50 for parking in handicapped zones after Jan. 1

Unauthorized drivers who park in spaces designated for the handicapped face a $50 fine under legislation signed into law last week by Governor James R. Thompson.

"Good transportation and accessible parking are crucial for handicapped persons who are doing their best to participate equally in the world," the governor said. This is another step toward tearing down the barriers which separate the disabled population. And it is one which should make every phase of daily activities just a little less of a struggle.

House Bill 2441 amends the Illinois Vehicle Code and the Facilities for the Handicapped Act to raise the fine from $5 to $50 for conviction of unlawfully using a handicapped parking space.

In addition, the laws provides that vehicles with appropriate identification will be exempt from parking meter fees, except when the meter is for one-half hour or less. The law also requires the Department of Transportation and Capital Development Board to adopt a standard emblem to identify handicapped parking spaces and users. The law takes effect Jan. 1, 1985.

Senior Aides is not a welfare program

To the Editor:

The Senior Aides Program in Madison County is funded by the Department of Labor through a grant to the National Council of Senior Citizens and is administered locally by Belleville Area College.

The program is designed to bring together the talents of the older workers and the unmet needs of the community. Participants from the age of 55 and up have demonstrated in concrete terms that "gray power" means productive power and that older workers have the talent, enthusiasm and experience to make meaningful contributions in the work force.

The program is aimed at the rapidly increasing poor and near-poor and the unemployed elderly population. It is not a welfare program nor an income-maintenance program, but a program designed to open up community service opportunities to individuals who firmly believe in the work ethic but who, for a variety of reasons, have been unable to re-enter the workforce. It is a unique program that, by all testimony and independent examination, is a tremendous success.

For many, each year, the Senior Citizens Program represents the road back to full or part-time employment, unsubsidized by the government. New job skills, the elimination of the feeling of isolation that so many elderly people experience and a renewed sense of confidence often result in a new career, or, as in the case of elderly widows, a first chance for participation in the work force.

In addition to services provided in their respective communities, the Senior Aides salaries are spent locally, which contributes to the financial welfare of the community in which they work and live. Consider the fact that welfare costs would increase dramatically as older workers in the shrinking economy would find it increasingly difficult to locate employment opportunities.

Anyone over the age of 55 and currently living on a limited income, may qualify for employment in the senior aides program. For more information or an interview in the Tri-Cities area, contact me between the hours of 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. at 876-3223 at the Senior Aides Office, 22nd and Iowa, (Old McKim School).

DISLIKES HOT WORK WITHOUT ENOUGH BREAKS
To the Editor:

This is a good case for the State Board of Health. It concerns men and women who work in steel plants around hot steel, who work without relief even for restroom privileges. The only relief they have is for a 20-minute lunch break.

All these companies think about is production. They don't give a damn about the employees. This matter should be looked into immediately.

A STEELWORKER

Robert looking for acceptance

Robert is 11 years old and enjoys riding his bicycle, watching television and playing video games. A trip to a movie theater to view an adventure film is the favorite activity of this attractive child, who has dark brown hair and brown eyes.

Robert will need a foster home for the next six to 12 months, according to Becky Osborne, a social worker with the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services. He currently resides in a temporary emergency shelter home because there is no regular foster home available.

She explains that Robert has been removed from previous foster home placements because he has fought with other children and displayed a temper. He is angry and would like to live with his mother, but this is not possible.

Robert's mother has a history of chronic alcohol abuse and does not supervise Robert and his sisters and brothers.

Becky Osborne would like to find for him a foster mother and father who would be firm, consistent and loving.

The ideal foster family for Robert will be willing to "ride out the rough times" that occur until Robert adjusts to foster care. Robert needs acceptance, she adds.

Many children like Robert are angry because they are separated from their families; children love their mothers and fathers even if they have mistreated or neglected them, she commented.

The Illinois Department of Children and Family Services says it desperately needs more consistent, patient foster parents for children experiencing adjustment problems like Robert. Foster homes are needed to provide regular foster care and emergency short-term care.

Emergency foster homes are specialized homes that care for children of any age for up to 30 days. The department pays a retainer fee of $100 per month per space available for emergency care.

An emergency home also receives the monthly board rate of $200 to $247 for each child placed in the foster home. An average emergency foster home has four spaces available for children and receives a monthly fee of $400 per month.

Emergency foster home parents receive special training and support services from the department. The Illinois Department of Children and Family Services says it cannot fight child abuse without a network of emergency foster homes.

"Child abuse does not occur only on weekdays during office hours. Special people must be available 24 hours a day to accept victims of abuse or neglect," Miss Osborne comments.

"Both regular and emergency foster homes must be licensed by the department. Requirements for foster home licenses include submitting positive personal references and medical examination forms. A criminal background check on each adult family member is required.

"The foster home must also meet structure and safety requirements. There is no fee for a foster home license.

"For more information on Robert or the department's foster home programs, Quad-Cities may call Jane Heathcote at 876-8985. Private agency foster parents interested in Robert should contact their local office.

Invasion by 'cute boys' thwarted

CBA, described by its sales staff as Cute Boys of America or Circulation Builders of America, "invaded" the local community with at least three representatives Thursday. None had licenses to solicit at homes, Granite City police charged.

An unusually aggressive, "high pressure" magazine salesman was reported at 4:30 p.m. in the 4100 block of Old Alton Road.

When officers investigated, a suspect ran through a front yard and back yard, leaped a fence and ran down an alley.

Nabbed in the 4000 block of Braden Avenue, James Daniel Hibbs, 26, Uniontown, Pa., was booked for disorderly conduct and soliciting without a city license. He said he was assigned here by a Fort Worth, Texas, company and was staying at the Executive International Inn in St. Louis County.

At 8:45 p.m., police went to the 2100 block of St. Clair Avenue to check on reports of two additional CBA salesmen.

Peter Kelly, 19, River Falls, Wis., was arrested in the 3000 block of Ash Avenue and Robert J. Webster, 18, Fort Worth, was taken into custody on St. Clair. Each was charged with soliciting without a license.

All three were freed at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, two on bail of $52 each and Hibbs after posting $104.

Madison School Board hires teacher, okays bid

By SUSANNE INDELICATO
of the Press-Record

Although the Madison School Board ultimately decided to hire a new district adaptive physical education teacher, there was some conflict during Thursday's board meeting regarding the process of recommending candidates for teaching positions.

Following an executive session, the board hired Johnna Wells of Raleigh, Ill., to fill the position vacated by last month by Thomas H. Tucker, who left to take a position with the Department of Defense Dependents' Schools in Germany. He had been with the Madison School District five years.

Madison School Superintendent John Patchett recommended that the board hire Miss Wells, who was one of three candidates considered for the position.

But Board Member Don Garrett objected to the fact that the school administration had reviewed the applicants and made a recommendation. "I thought they were supposed to be screened by the board's personnel committee," he said. "There's no point in forming these committees if we're not going to use them."

Patchett responded, "That means you have to interview these candidates. You can come over any time, if we can get the personnel committee together. We've had problems getting together, even on uncertified personnel."

Board President Paul Bargiel suggested that the administration's recommendations should be presented to the personnel committee before board consideration, to which Patchett answered, "Any way you want to do it is fine, as long as you meet with the people. Bargiel then suggested that the administration make recommendations to the personnel committee and then submit the resumes of all candidates to the committee for its review."

Miss Wells, of El Dorado, Ill., is a beginning teacher. She is certified in biology and physical education, and can coach volleyball, softball, basketball, track and field.

She was recommended by the school's administration and principals for the position of adaptive physical education teacher.

In other action, the board gave Patchett permission to advertise for bids, if necessary, for a new roof for Harris School. Patchett said "splits" are developing along the length of the roof and causing leaking. The approaching winter weather, he noted, may further damage the roof. He asked that he be allowed to solicit bids to install a Carlisle roof, which is constructed of rubber, if it becomes necessary.

The board also accepted a bid from Hollywood-Andrews Studio to provide photography services during the 1984-85 school year. The board rejected a bid from the company it contracted with last year, Jackson Photography. Prior to that, Hollywood-Andrews provided photography services to the school district. Patchett said both bids were comparably priced.

In setting its football schedule, the board designated Oct. 12 (against Dupui) for its field dedication and Oct. 26 (against Freeburg) as Homecoming.

These techniques will be explained through specific cases prosecuted in Madison County during the last three years.

An inventory was being compiled to determine what property was taken in the burglary.

Teachers' strike

the precise specialties required is regarded as complex, if not impossible.

No interest has been shown by either side in entering into binding arbitration, since both parties would lose their ability to influence the terms of whatever settlement would be ordered.

SHIRLEY STOLL, Local 743 president, said the union is still hopeful of a prompt settlement but that no agreement has been reached with the board on terms that would meet the needs of the district, students and teachers.

Teachers met Sunday evening from 6:30 to 9:45 to review the status of negotiations. The committee outlined its view of the strike, and Mrs. Stoll said afterward that the local remains hopeful of "a fair settlement."

The Board of Education met for more than two hours Thursday night and again for an hour and a half Friday evening before submitting its letter to the teachers' negotiating team.

BARGAINING TALKS were held twice Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and from about 6 to 8 p.m. The Salary and Policy Committee rejected the board's proposal and submitted what it described as an extensive counter-proposal; details were not announced.

Points that have been mentioned at various times as unresolved include dismissal, seniority, recall, seniority, class size, insurance, unused earned absences, student discipline and 1985-86 pay.

In their letter, made public Saturday, the seven board members said to the teachers' committee, "Despite the fact that you are proposing only a one-year contract, you have also proposed a salary schedule for the next school year, 1985-86, under which every teacher would receive a raise."

"IN THE NEXT BREATH," they admit that—unless there is improvement in the school district's financial situation—the proposed schedule can't be guaranteed by us and will have to be renegotiated.

"Some of you have attempted to claim that, under such schedule, we will not be granting raises, only increments," the board members said.

"But regardless of what terms are used, the facts remain that the proposed schedule would in 1985-86 produce more income for every teacher—a minimum of six percent each—and would cost this district more money—a minimum of $679,000.

"OUR NEGOTIATING team has told you time and time again, and we hereby reiterate, that we don't now know if, and from what sources, we can get the $2 million or more we will need to complete this school year, 1984-85."

"Therefore, it would be foolish and irresponsible for us to even speculate regarding how many conditions might be mutually agreed upon and imposed—for next school year."

"We fully realize that the last raise a substantial majority of the teachers received was for and during school year 1982-83. And, of course, we recognize that almost as many of you received no raise last school year."

"And also that we have proposed—and you have agreed in principle to—a freeze for 380 out of 422 teachers, 90 percent, for this school year."

"AS AN EXACT matter of fact, we have not really proposed a freeze for this year because some 40 or more teachers will receive incremental raises at an additional cost to the district of approximately $30,000."

"On the other hand, runaway inflation has ceased and your dollars today are worth almost the same as they were in 1982-83."

"Furthermore, we would point out that, despite the proposed freeze for this school year, your salaries are still higher—as they have been for many years late past—than those of your colleagues in the other large Madison County districts."

"CONTRARY TO YOUR public pronouncements, we are not proposing a freeze for the next school year. We recognize that we probably can't and shouldn't deny our teachers an 'across the board' raise next school year."

"We also recognize that such a raise may be required to keep this district competitive."

"BUT WE HEREBY respectfully suggest that that schedule should be negotiated early next school year when you, we, all of us, have a better grasp and knowledge of what our financial situation will then be."

"Therefore, each of the undersigned members of the Board of Education hereby individually, collectively, irrevocably and unanimously pledges to you, and through you to all of the teachers, that this Board of Education stands ready to attempt to negotiate, at the appropriate future time, a salary schedule for next school year, 1985-86."

"Under which, hopefully, 100 percent of our teachers—as well as all other employees—will receive more individual income, by increments of one or an 'across the board' adjustment of the salary schedule."

"HOWEVER, SO THAT there be absolutely no misunderstanding, this negotiation and any agreements made will be predicated upon the following conditions:

"A. We find the cash sources to complete this year and to otherwise fund all, or a substantial part, of our accumulated fund balance deficit on a long-term basis."

"B. Our estimated accrual-basis revenues—without including the proceeds of the proposed working cash bonds if approved and sold, the additional local taxes which will be produced if the proposed 40-cent rate increase is approved, or any one or more of the items, e.g., proceeds of real estate sales—will exceed our estimated accrual-basis expenditures, all in school year 1985-86."

"C. WE FIND SOURCES to produce the needed cash next school year."

"During such negotiations, we will seriously contemplate the adoption of a salary schedule with a net lesser number of 'steps' than the present 14."

"Consolidation of steps, rather than your proposed elimination, might be the acceptable solution."

"ALTHOUGH WE HAVE complete confidence in the budgetary projections made by our director of finance, we hereby agree that—before such future 1985-86 salary schedule negotiations are completed—his budget shall be reviewed by Peat, Marwick & Mitchell or some other nationally recognized CPA firm."

"Such review shall be made in accordance with the Illinois Program Accounting Manual for Local Education Agencies—promulgated by the Illinois State Board of Education, as of 1980—amended from time to time, and generally accepted accounting principles, all applied on a basis consistent with that of the prior school year."

"We further pledge hereby that we will take all reasonable and necessary steps to have the 1984-85 audit at hand no later than Sept. 15, 1985."

"WE PROPOSE, therefore, that the working agreement presently being negotiated be for a two-year term except for the salary schedule, Article 40."

"That the salary schedule for the second year will be negotiated commencing no later than July 1, 1985."

"And that, if such negotiations cannot be successfully completed on or before Dec. 31, 1985, the entire working agreement shall thereupon terminate, unless then mutually extended."

"We have proposed an extended period of 1985-86 salary schedule negotiations not only as a condition of strike at the beginning of school, but also to allow the audit and budget to be at hand during such negotiations."

"EVEN MORE IMPORTANT, we believe the General Assembly will revise and improve general state aid, but that the final action thereon may not occur until the 'override' session in the fall of 1985."

"In closing, we applaud the time and effort your team has devoted in attempting to reach conditions, to protect the teachers for next year."

"We presently must reject those proposals for the reasons stated above, but we sincerely hope that our pledges made above are acceptable as a substitute."

"YOU DON'T HAVE an exclusive concern about the teachers."

"We, too, have a concern about their morale, their esprit de corps, their financial well-being, and the impact of all of that upon the excellence of education in this district."

"But right now, we have to first solve our present problems," the board's letter concluded.

Mrs. Stoll said at 9:20 a.m. today that Local 743 is calling a public forum for 7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 13, at the Township Building, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue.

"IT WILL NOT BE canceled," she stressed. An early-evening settlement had resulted in canceling such a forum a year ago.

"We believe we have addressed the board's financial concerns. They have not addressed the concerns of the teachers," she told the Press-Record.

"The board has restated the same position it took two weeks ago. It indicates it is trying to cloud the real issues that must be resolved."

AN AFT FINANCIAL expert is coming here from Washington, D.C., today to confer with the local negotiating committee, she related.

Mrs. Stoll added that the federation is considering suing the board for allegedly unfair labor practices.

Laborer contract will be challenged

The Laborers union and Southern Illinois Builders Association reached a three-year contract agreement Friday night, possibly affecting 37 locals in 12 counties. After a week strike, work had resumed Aug. 17 pending a settlement.

The pact approved by the Southern Illinois Laborers District Council is to be challenged by several locals, according to Bruce Cook, a Belleville attorney who represents Granite City Local 397 and East St. Louis Local 100.

The new contract calls for raises totaling $1.40 an hour over three years, reaching $16.35. It was signed by Wilbur Freitag, international vice president and the district's trustee.

Cook said the contract will not affect Locals 397 and 100 because court orders have barred the international union from bargaining on their behalf.

St. Clair County Associate Judge Roger Scrivner and U.S. District Judge William L. Beatty both ordered Freitag, the district and the international not to negotiate for the locals. Cook said he will study whether he may elude contempt of court.

The locals traditionally have bargained for their members and want to continue doing so.

The SIBA said during the weekend the new pact is fair to all parties.

grand jury at East St. Louis. Issued Aug. 31, the 25 indictments were suppressed until Thursday.

The announcement was made by Dean Paisley of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He alleged that the seven made up a loosely-knit "organized crime operation."

"There was no ring leader," Paisley contended, "nor did they work together, but they were acquainted and knew what the others were up to."

POLITTE, Robert Neal Allen, Roy Lewis and Joseph W. Brooks were arraigned Thursday before U.S. Magistrate Gerald Cohn in East St. Louis. Lewis' bond was set at $50,000 and the other three bonds are $500,000 each.

Clinton A. Bramlet was arraigned in Alton, where the request was a $500,000 bond.

Marcel Paul Tarris turned himself in Thursday evening. Patrick H. McAtee, 64, Smith Mills, Ky., was not arraigned Thursday.

TARRIS, 42, Bethalto, is charged with possessing and transporting a hand grenade.

Brooks, 50, and Bramlet, 46, both of Bethalto, face federal charges linked to the 1983 robbery of the Community Trust Bank of Irvington, and the 1984 robbery of the Bartello (Ill.) Savings Bank.

A machine gun was used in these holdups, which netted $34,293 and $20,800, respectively. The indictment alleges they also plotted two future robberies and that Bramlet discussed possibly robbing the First National Bank of Columbia, Ill.

EXPLOSIVES allegations against Allen, 48, Centerville, include making and selling a car bomb in August 1983. The device was not utilized by anyone.

McAtee is accused of providing dynamite and blasting caps for the same car bomb. Lewis, 45, Fairmont City, faces charges related to sale of 32 grams of cocaine in May 1983.

Arrests began at 6 a.m. Thursday at the various homes.

THE FBI spokesman said the robbery, bomb and drug cases were uncovered during a 30-month investigation conducted in Southwestern Illinois.

Politte was sentenced to seven years in prison in 1978 at the federal district court in St. Louis for interstate transportation of stolen work. The FBI said it recovered from a St. Louis County apartment an array of antiques, furs, handbags and other items valued at $500,000.

In the 1978 case, eight-year prison terms were ordered for Raymond J. Bryan of Cahokia and Norman Owens. Shot once in the back of the head, Owens' frozen body was found in an auto trunk at Lambert Airport in December 1983.

POLITTE suffered burns to 65 percent of his body in 1974 and was charged with arson in a fire that destroyed the Somy's Village Inn tavern in Pontoon Beach.

There were no convictions in connection with the tavern. Others arrested at that time were Robert J. Richmond, a former business agent of Operating Engineers Local 913, and Raymond Flynn, a convicted burglar who now heads Laborers Local 42 in St. Louis.

With a friend of one operating engineers local being charged with bombing the office of another operating engineers local, speculation has arisen regarding jurisdictional rivalry between Missouri and Illinois workers at the site where a new Mississippi River lock and dam are being built.

THE MITCHELL LOCAL has contended its members should handle all operating engineering work at the mid-river construction site.

The Operating Engineers international office has agreed with that policy.

nion nor relevant to pending litigation. He was not asked to rule, at this time, whether the statements show actual malice by Cuelo.

The 31 allegations in Cuelo's letter led to a Madison County grand jury probe which, eventually, cleared Weber of all charges. The letter had charged Weber with misappropriating county funds, paying employees for more hours than they worked, with a lack of personal discretion and official misconduct for prosecuting an accused rapist Weber allegedly knew was innocent. Cuelo also is suing Weber in a separate case for that rape prosecution.

The 31 allegations in Cuelo's Jan. 14, 1983 letter were based upon allegations by former Weber aide Marvin Darling, who Weber had recently fired from the state's attorney's staff. Weber sued Cuelo for $1 million per allegation, for a total of $3.1 million, $100,000 per allegation.

The date and place for the trial has not been set.

Maintenance, which is more commonly known as alimony, is a Court Ordered payment for the support of a spouse or former spouse pursuant to a Divorce or Legal Separation. The Court may order maintenance for either spouse if it finds that the spouse seeking maintenance does not have sufficient income to provide for her needs, is unable to find suitable employment outside the home, or is the custodian of a minor child whose needs dictate that the custodial parent remain at home. There are many factors which a Court considers when deciding if maintenance should be awarded.

Some of the factors are the standard of living established during the marriage, the time necessary for the spouse seeking maintenance to acquire sufficient educational training to support himself or herself, the duration of the marriage, and the age and physical condition of the husband and wife. It is important to note that the Court may not consider marital misconduct in determining an award of maintenance. Therefore, if the situation where a husband is unfaithful to his wife on numerous occasions, this cannot be considered by the Court when a decision is reached regarding an award of alimony.

One thing that is apparent is that the Court has an enormous amount of discretion in determining not only the amount of a maintenance award but also the time period for which the maintenance will be received. In one case, an Illinois Appellate Court held that the trial Court had ruled properly in awarding a wife a maintenance award of $300,000.00 when the marriage was of relatively long duration (12 years), where the wife had been absent from the labor market for a substantial period of time, and where the wife lacked special vocational skills or training and was in poor health. In this case, it should be pointed out that the husband's net worth was estimated at 1.6 million dollars.

In another case, the Court held that it was proper for the trial Court to award maintenance in a situation where a young wife was able to obtain suitable employment and earn a comfortable living, but where such employment would put her at a standard of living below that established during the marriage. On the other hand, the courts have denied maintenance where the marriage lasted 12 years and where the wife's net property included a 100 acre farm and her share of marital property. Here the Courts felt that the wife had sufficient income to support herself in a reasonable manner.

Hogan appeals for support to fund A-number one schools

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Editor

If Granite City residents want a good school system, they are going to have to pay for it, Kelly Hogan, school treasurer and Granite City Board of Education member, said as he addressed the problem of the school district's debt Thursday afternoon.

Addressing the Granite City Optimist Club, Hogan stated, "If people want a mediocre school district, then they can pay for mediocre. If we want to pay for an A-number one educational system, we can have it."

HOGAN WARNED that the future of a community may be tied to the quality of its future leaders, products of the school system.

"I have heard it said that, as goes the educational system in a community, so goes the future of that community. People are concerned and many are active and involved to help the entire community, especially the educational community, grow," he said.

Asked where he felt the district first made mistakes which led to the current debt of around $8 million, Hogan answered, "I'm not saying I fault the past board members. It (the debt) just got away."

"WITH THE SIZE of the budget the schools have, if you are running a 10 percent deficit a year, the debt compounds rapidly. The bottom just fell out," he said.

He also blamed the state and federal governments for reducing funding to education at a critical time. "Education was not very popular with them."

"We are seeing that changing now, but it will be some time before that trickles down and we see the money."

POINTING OUT that he was not on the school board when the debts developed, Hogan said, "One particular problem may well have been they kept too many schools open for too long and kept too many people on the payroll."

With elections constantly approaching one half of the board or the other half, decisions to close schools and lay off personnel are difficult and unpopular, he said.

Due to the pending negotiations with striking teachers, Hogan declined to discuss the board's position or the teachers' demands. But he said that for the board to give up anything in the way of salaries or benefits would be very costly.

"FOR EVERY one percent increase to all the district's employees, it costs approximately $150,000," he noted.

Addressing the issue of the upcoming $6.6 million bond referendum and the 40-cent per $100 assessed valuation tax increase voters will be asked to approve in November, Hogan stated, "Some people feel that if we get this money, we will give it to the teachers. That is not true."

"If the bonds and the 40-cent tax rate pass, that will address the debt. What we are asking the public for is simply to reduce that debt."

THE $6.6 MILLION from bonds would be used to create a working cash fund so the school district can borrow from itself, interest free, when the money is needed and can collect interest on the money when it is not in use. The club was told Hogan urged a citizens' effort to get the bond issue and tax rate passed Nov. 6, saying, "We owe it not only to ourselves but to the youth, our future generation of leaders."

"If we can educate these students, we, as businessmen and leaders of the community, get a direct benefit five years down the road and continue to get that benefit from then on."

Along with the probation and public service work, Circuit Judge P. J. O'Neill ordered Cox to pay a $500 fine, $50 special costs and $95 court costs.

After several open bottles of beer allegedly were found in the vehicle, Lisa A. Armour, 19, of 2219 E. 24th St., the driver, was charged with illegal transportation of alcohol.

Four passengers, Janice R. McGinness, 18, and Priscilla G. Senabach, both of 2605 Washington Ave., Larry D. Pruett, 23, of 1911 Grand Ave., and Michael E. Bridges, 20, of 2014 Edwardsville Road, Madison, were all charged with illegal possession of alcohol.

All were released pending Oct. 5 court appearances.

Transit board seeks 'new look' for buses here

By PAUL GUSE

Bi-State Development Agency buses serving routes in Madison County may have a new look if a plan by the Madison County Transit Board is implemented.

The transit board is seeking, in coordination with the St. Clair County Transit Board, to give buses traveling in the Metro-East area a new paint job.

The new design would be different from one planned for Bi-State buses in Missouri.

AT A MEETING of the Madison County Transit Board recently, John Salucce of Inlandesign Group, of Edwardsville made a slide presentation showing several ideas for the new look.

"It was excellent," Chairman William Haine said of the presentation. "I think the rest of the board really felt positive about it too."

The planned painting is part of a new marketing plan the transit board has been working on the past year. "We have been getting input, proceeding carefully on it," Haine said.

"We need an image that is somewhat different from Bi-State," Haine said. He said the board is unhappy with the image riders have of Bi-State.

ONE IDEA presented by Salucce was an adaptation of the logo already in use on the Alton Bustle routes. The logo features a hopping rabbit in a stylized design.

Haine said the design has been very successful in Alton, and could be easily adapted to the larger plan. "It is an active, youthful image," Haine said.

Other board members also seemed favorable to the Bustle image. Board member Suzanne Blackhurst said people immediately relate to the logo. "When people see it coming down the road, they don't say 'Here comes the bus,' they say 'Here comes the Bustle,'" she said at the meeting.

NOT EVERYONE at the meeting was excited with the paint plan, however. Bi-State representative Tom Sturgess and Jack Requa pointed out some problems with the plan.

Although Salucce estimated it would take approximately three and one-half months to paint the metro-east buses, Requa said with Bi-State doing the painting the task could not be completed until November 1985. The 13-month delay is necessary because all of Bi-State's buses are being repainted with a new "lightning bolt" scheme.

When the board suggested contracting out the painting of the metro-east buses, Requa said it would not be possible.

"We would have a problem with our union on that," Requa said. "It was an initial knee-jerk reaction."

Haine, HOWEVER, discounted the union problems. "It's the old control issue again," Haine said. "It was an initial knee-jerk reaction."

The board encountered another problem concerning the deletion of bus-side advertising.

Salucce recommended to the board that in order to best present the new design, advertising should be removed from the outside of the buses.

Probation, jail on attempted burglary

Probation of 30 months, with the last 10 months in jail, is to be served by Gregory J. Rose, 28, formerly of Kirkpatrick Homes. A charge of attempted burglary was filed Aug. 25, 1981, in Granite City.

Rose pleaded guilty Aug. 6, 1984. Circuit Judge Paul J. O'Neill assessed a $350 fine and $30 special costs as well as the sentence of probation and jail.

Police were called to a burglary attempt in progress at the home of Robert Minks in the 2600 block of E. 27th Street at 10:40 p.m. Aug. 24, 1981.

Officers surrounded the house when they saw two persons trying to open doors of the residence. When the suspects noticed the police, the pair ran and ignored orders from an officer to stop, even though he had drawn his revolver.

After ignoring two orders to stop, they ran into the rear yard, where another officer waited with his gun drawn. He told them to stop and they complied.

A witness told of seeing the two trying to open the front and side doors, and police found that a storm window on the side of the house was off its track. No entry was gained.

A Kirkpatrick Homes boy, 16, arrested with Rose was scheduled for a juvenile court hearing.

In an unrelated case, police responded to a reported disturbance in mid-June 1984 in the 2200 block of State Street and booked Gregory Rose on warrants alleging resisting a peace officer, property damage and battery.

Madison School officials improve spelling curriculum

Spelling and handwriting standards are being upgraded in the schools in Madison Community Unit District No. 12, according to Curriculum Director Dolores Folkerts.

After a year-long study, a new curriculum in spelling and handwriting has been developed and placed, in use this school year.

MRS. FOLKERTS explained that teacher committees were formed to study the two areas. Members of the spelling committee included Albert Collins, Catherine Hildebrand, Sarah Pope, Elaine Shipcott, David Thompson, Willie Watts and Betty Williams. Mary Medley, Sarah Pope, George Tyus, Mary Whitley, Betty Williams and Al Vanderhaar sat on the handwriting committee.

The committees discussed research concerning the teaching of spelling and handwriting. Standards then were set for the two subjects, and publishers were investigated to determine which publisher most closely met these standards.

The spelling committee reviewed 14 different publishers, while the handwriting committee reviewed seven. Mrs. Folkerts said the committee developed a curriculum series that matched the Madison standards.

A CURRICULUM guide has been developed for use by each teacher to insure all children have the same opportunities.

Mrs. Folkerts said the school system has set its own criteria for each grade in spelling. Each child will take a pre-test at the beginning of each semester and a post-test at the end of each semester to determine what has been learned.

To help all kindergarten through eighth grade teachers become acquainted with the new spelling books and curriculum, the teachers will meet with Houghton Mifflin Company Consultant Ruth Hawkins from 2 to 3:40 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 11, while the children will be released from school early.

MRS. FOLKERTS stated that the handwriting curriculum has standardized examples and evaluation scales for student self-comparison and for the teacher's grading purposes. Printing, or manuscript, instruction will be continued through all grades, even though the students are writing cursive. Mrs. Folkerts said this strategy will avoid the loss of a skill that the student will need in filling out applications and forms.

In addition, each parent is being sent a copy of the Zaner-Bloser alphabet for ready reference for correct size and formation of the letters that the child is learning.

ON TUESDAY, Sept. 18, the teachers will meet with Zaner-Bloser Company Consultant, Van Schmidt to help them launch the new program.

Mrs. Folkerts is urging parents to show their children that they are concerned about correct spelling and legible handwriting.

2-year separation clause is clarified

A new Illinois law amends two sections of the Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act.

To clarify separation provisions under the no-fault divorce law, it specifies that a couple's separation prior to the July 1, 1984, effective date of the no-fault divorce law will be included in computation of the two-year separation time necessary to obtain a divorce.

Another section of the law provides that a 16-year-old may get married with the consent of one parent. The measure is designed to recognize situations in which one parent has disappeared, leaving the other parent to run the household.

The bill takes effect immediately.

Aldermen approve 'no increase' levy

In a brief meeting Saturday, 11 Granite City aldermen voted unanimously to pass a $2.3 million levy, which will result in no increase to taxpayers for the coming year.

The meeting, which was originally called for Tuesday evening, was changed, since the levy must be turned in to Madison County Clerk Evelyn Boush, into consideration.

Several questions about the levy had caused aldermen to delay the passage of the ordinance at the regular meeting last week.

Among questions answered by City Comptroller Joe Miklovic Saturday, was the terming of the levy for sewer breaks as a "squeeze figure." Miklovic explained that "squeeze" is a term used in accounting when figuring the line items needed to get a certain sum.

He said that according to directions from Mayor Paul Schuler, he knew that the levy was to total $2.8 million, the same as last year. He said that the city's budget had been passed on July 30 of this year and the city's anticipated revenues. After totalling these up with a "5½ figure," which was to be the amount allotted for sewer breaks and other capital expenditures.

Miklovic admitted that the "squeeze" term may have unnecessarily excited some of the aldermen. He said, however, that it is a regular accounting procedure. Those aldermen present at the meeting were Everett Morlen, Fred "Pat" Schuman, Paul Ray Bowler, Michael Modruski, Casmer Skubish, Carl Kitter, Sharon Perjak, Jake Varadani, Stephen Salich, Phillip Miller and Woodrow "Woody" Moad.

Those not present were: Sam Whitmer, Paul Fisk and Lloyd Bailey.

Catch youths with loot from GC store

Petitions are to be filed with the state's attorney to have two youths who were taken into custody at 2:05 a.m. Saturday in the 1600 block of Grand Avenue while the store was closed, charged with the theft of a television set and a stereo stolen in a Granite City burglary.

A 16-year-old Madison youth and a Venice youth, age 15, were implicated in the burglary of the Western Auto store, 2001 Grand Ave. They were released to their respective mothers at midday Saturday, pending further court action.

Officers were first dispatched to the 1600 block alley between Grand and Madison avenues, after receiving a report of two persons carrying items and acting in a suspicious manner. The search area was made up of two persons carrying items and acting in a suspicious manner. The search area was made up of two persons carrying items and acting in a suspicious manner.

At the time of their arrest, initially on curfew violation charges, both youths allegedly were carrying items, portable stereos, one with a price tag attached.

The 16-year-old also was holding a canvas bag containing several calculators, two hunting knives and other merchandise with Western Auto price tags stuck on the items, reports alleged.

The same Madison youth also had a .32-caliber five-shot revolver, loaded with live rounds, in his possession when he was carrying it, it was alleged.

At Western Auto, it was discovered the intruders removed a smoldering pane from a garage door on the east side of the building and apparently crawled through the opening.

After entering a storage area, the burglars removed hinges from a door leading into the customer shop and a knife found in the storage area had been broken and several knives were missing, reports noted.

The store manager was notified and identified the items which were recovered.

DRIVERLESS PICKUP HITS MACHINE

Steven Lang, 31, of St. Ann, Mo., left his 1977 Ford pickup in the parking lot when he went into J and J Liquor Store, 3112 Maryville Road, and the vehicle's gears must have jumped, causing it to move in reverse, he told police at 8:15 p.m. Friday.

The driverless truck struck an ice machine at the corner of St. Ann and Belleville, pushing the machine into the liquor store building. Damage resulted to the structure and also to some bottles on interior shelves, reports said.

Lang was cited for leaving an unattended motor vehicle with the engine running and is to appear for a hearing Oct. 12.

RADIO AND PISTOL GONE

Mrs. Harris and her two passengers, Brian Harris, 15, of 5056 Lakeview Drive, and Stacy Stoyanoff, 15, of 6 Holiday Park Mobile Homes, were taken to Christian Northeast Hospital, St. Louis, and released. After finding Robert L. Flaugh, 21, of 2609 North St., lying on the ground in the early morning hours last week, an officer attempted to awaken him without success.

The man had contusions and a laceration around his right eye and blood on his shirt and appeared to have been injured in some type of prior altercation, reports said.

After waking up, Flaugh allegedly began cursing the officer, approaching him and swinging his fists. He was physically removed to a squad car and taken to a police headquarters, where he tried to strike an officer at the booking window and resisted violently, officers contend.

In the scuffle, Police Sgt. Ronald Selpin injured his right hand. He was treated at St. Elizabeth Medical Center and was released.

Flaugh was released from custody after posting a $256 cash bond.

Book 'cyclist' after Nameoki Road chase

Following a chase on Nameoki Road last week, Arthur G. Billick, 31, of 2627 Pershing Ave., was charged with fleeing and attempting to elude a police officer, driving too fast for conditions and a stop sign violation. He posted a $202 cash bond and was released pending a court appearance.

The incident started when an officer went to an apartment in the 1000 block of the Kirkpatrick-Homes response to a disturbance call from a woman there pointed toward Billick, who was trying to leave on a motorcycle.

The officer motioned him to stop, but Billick allegedly continued to drive through the housing complex to East 25th Street and then north on Nameoki Road.

During the pursuit, the motorcycle allegedly went around a squad car blocking the northbound lanes of Nameoki Road at Faith Avenue.

Billick also circled around a second police car, blocking Nameoki Road at Leonard Avenue, before turning into the North and Poppa parking lot, where he lost control of the machine in front of the store, dumped the cycle and was arrested, reports said.

Invoice bid awarded

Granite City Aldermen approved a bid last week for sewer lines used in the city's accounts payable department. The bid was awarded to the National Cash Register Company (NCR) for $280.

Only one other bid was received for the product, that one being from Buschard Company, St. Louis.

Alderman Casmer Skubish, chairman of the city buildings committee, said that, although the Buschard bid appears lower, the making of the invoices would require the city to purchase a plate to print the bills. The plate would cost $250.

He said that NCR, which has printed the invoices in the past, already has a plate made up, making their bid a better buy.

BRICK THROWN AT MAN

George Tyus of 1024 Third St., Venice, told police last week that a woman jumped out of a brown car and threw a brick, hitting him in the right shoulder. He said the woman got a tire wrench out of her car and threatened him. The incident occurred at College Street and Mercedosa Avenue.

12 SPEEDING ARRESTS

Officer Daniel McKinley of the Venice Police Department issued 12 speeding tickets Friday and Saturday. Most of the citations were issued at Broadway and McKinley Avenue, Venice.

GO WARRANT IS SERVED

Patricia A. Hulsedier, 30, of 2436 Ohio Ave., was served last week with a Granite City warrant alleging failure to appear in court on a deceptive practice charge.

TYPEWRITER MISSING

Venice Superintendent of Schools Robert N. Vickers last week reported the theft of an IBM typewriter valued at $150 from the Venice public schools.

LONG SERVICE BY Geneva Butler for First Granite City National Bank is observed as Melvin C. Wilsmeier, chairman and chief executive officer of the bank, presents a 25-year service watch to her. She has worked in customer service, posting, proof and accounting and in 1962 was assigned the safe deposit area, where she serves.

Resisting, assault charges are filed

After finding Robert L. Flaugh, 21, of 2609 North St., lying on the ground in the early morning hours last week, an officer attempted to awaken him without success.

The man had contusions and a laceration around his right eye and blood on his shirt and appeared to have been injured in some type of prior altercation, reports said.

After waking up, Flaugh allegedly began cursing the officer, approaching him and swinging his fists. He was physically removed to a squad car and taken to a police headquarters, where he tried to strike an officer at the booking window and resisted violently, officers contend.

In the scuffle, Police Sgt. Ronald Selpin injured his right hand. He was treated at St. Elizabeth Medical Center and was released.

Flaugh was released from custody after posting a $256 cash bond.

Book 'cyclist' after Nameoki Road chase

Following a chase on Nameoki Road last week, Arthur G. Billick, 31, of 2627 Pershing Ave., was charged with fleeing and attempting to elude a police officer, driving too fast for conditions and a stop sign violation. He posted a $202 cash bond and was released pending a court appearance.

The incident started when an officer went to an apartment in the 1000 block of the Kirkpatrick-Homes response to a disturbance call from a woman there pointed toward Billick, who was trying to leave on a motorcycle.

The officer motioned him to stop, but Billick allegedly continued to drive through the housing complex to East 25th Street and then north on Nameoki Road.

During the pursuit, the motorcycle allegedly went around a squad car blocking the northbound lanes of Nameoki Road at Faith Avenue.

Billick also circled around a second police car, blocking Nameoki Road at Leonard Avenue, before turning into the North and Poppa parking lot, where he lost control of the machine in front of the store, dumped the cycle and was arrested, reports said.

Annual Kick-Off Affair Soccer parade draws 1,000 people

GRANITE CITY. — The weather was just barely cooperating, but the Quad-Cities Soccer Association annual parade and kick-off festivities held Saturday morning went off like a charm just the same.

With approximately 1,000 youths, coaches and parents participating, the parade began shortly after 10 a.m. from Nameoki School and proceeded east on Pontoon Road before winding up at St. Elizabeth School soccer fields.

Once at St. Elizabeth's, the program included a keynote address, the official opening of the season and the drawing of attendance prizes which were donated by local businesses. Official Quad-Cities Soccer Association league play began immediately after the festivities.

In addition to the opening remarks, which highlighted the ceremony, the crowd pleaser and interest of the youths was the appearance of a 15-year-old Budweiser Clydesdale named Buck.

Last weekend's activities officially initiated Soccer Week, as proclaimed by Mayor Paul Schuler, but also marked the beginning of a community-wide fund-raising drive. The drive, which is spearheaded by the QCSA, will benefit the developing Granite City Soccer Complex adjacent to Frather Elementary School.

The association is hoping to raise $30,000 for improvements this year. Persons wishing to contribute may call the QCSA Hotline at 877-1282.

SOCCER KIDS. Hinting that they'd rather be playing soccer or even petting Buck, the Budweiser Clydesdale, Robert Mooshegion, Jim Conrad and Matt Mooshegion didn't exactly enjoy the opening address of the Quad-Cities Soccer Association's festivities Saturday morning. The three, team members of the Pepsi Royal Blue boys' team, are three of the nearly 1,000 people who participated in an annual fall kick-off.

Redbirds Win 34-14

West Frankfort wears down Madison for win

By CHARLIE SKAER
of the Press-Record

MADISON. — The Madison Trojans' offensive line, touted by coach Don Smith as the element of strength in this year's squad, displayed that strength Friday during the team's season opener.

But the West Frankfort Redbirds went one step further, displaying strength AND stamina. After a 14-14 halftime deadlock, West Frankfort plowed past a sluggish Madison team enroute to a 34-14 victory.

Madison's experienced line cleared holes for the team's running backs in the opening half, who rushed for 73 yards in 15 carries and put Madison on the scoreboard during their first possession. The line also helped protect quarterback Darnell Marshall during a surprise bomb pass to Reggie Young, a 45-yard gain that gave the team its second touchdown in the half.

BUT THE second touchdown also proved to be the last for the Trojans. The offensive line grew weary, as the team gained only 39 yards rushing during the second half. West Frankfort, meanwhile, racked up three touchdowns, 57 yards rushing and 58 yards passing in the final two quarters for a 34-14 victory.

"Our offensive line was tired," admitted Smith. "They're supposed to be the strength of this team. I've got them going both ways and I guess that they were just out of gas."

Madison's home-opener enthusiasm was evident from the start. Smith had his players charged up, displayed by the hustle of his squad.

"We felt we dominated the first half," said Smith. "Our running went well. Our passing went well. Our blocking was good. But it was disappointing that we ended up in a tie at half. We weren't beating them on the scoreboard, and that's what counts."

MADISON had the opportunity to be on top. On a fourth-down play at the seven-yard line, Trojan quarter-

"I told Coach Smith that his boys have come a long way. I think they've gotten better. If they get a little more conditioning under their belt and come out with the intensity that they had in the first quarter, they're going to be a fine ball club."

back Marshall whirled out to his left and scooted across the goal line for the score.

But the first-quarter run was called back because of a penalty against Young for pushing. Officials marched the ball back to the 19-yard line. On the next play, Marshall's pass to Darryl McCormick went incomplete.

Instead of being on top by at least 14-0, Madison stayed at 8-0.

"That touchdown they called back changed the momentum of the game," said Smith. "We would have been one (touchdown) up at half and had some pressure taken off of us."

Madison's first scoring drive started immediately after an opening kickoff that went to the Trojans' 38-yard line. Madison used 11 straight running plays to go in for the score. Young, on a pitchout, ran the ball 15 yards for the touchdown.

Angelo Cross carried the ball in for the two-point conversion to push the score to 8-0.

THE SECOND touchdown proved a bit more daring. After the Redbirds had scored to put the game at 8-8, Madison faced a fourth-down at their own 35-yard line. Center James Townsend snapped the ball to quarter-back Marshall instead of punter carry, although Madison kept possession because the ball went out of bounds.

SMITH called timeout to set up a play with his offensive unit. But the play, a long pass intended for Young, backfired when West Frankfort's Derren Wortman picked off the bomb and carried it to Madison's 29-yard line.

"Maybe I was trying a little too early to get even for their bomb," said Smith. "But I thought if we could get a score, we could change things around."

Instead, West Frankfort's Denny Richey rushed 12 yards into the end zone about one minute later to put the score at 26-14. The Redbirds received some help on the scoring drive from the Trojans, who were whistled for a 15-yard penalty for having too many men on the field.

"We're a young team," said Smith, explaining the mixup. "We have to spend time on the fundamentals."

West Frankfort had succeeded in swinging the momentum of the game after going on top by two touchdowns with 8:25 left in the third quarter. West Frankfort coach Gene Ernest said the game changed because his team's ability to adjust.

We didn't know that much about Madison," said Ernest. "At half we just talked about them and made a few minor adjustments."

Ernest also credited the winning attitude of his squad for turning things around. Ernest said the 24 seniors on the team were undefeated their freshman year and were 7-1 their sophomore year. Last year's varsity squad finished with a 6-3 record. West Frankfort has an enrollment of about 650 students.

Last year the Redbirds defeated Madison 20-6 in the season opener. Ernest said he noticed a difference in the type of play from the Trojans.

"I TOLD coach Smith that his boys have come a long way," said Ernest. "I think they've gotten better. If they get a little more conditioning under their belt and come out with the intensity that they had in the first quarter, they're going to be a fine ball club."

Smith, meanwhile, pointed out that West Frankfort is known as a football powerhouse.

"We expected a tough team," said Smith. "They're noted as being a football school."

Smith, in his second year as head coach, said Madison's squad is still in its developing stage. For this reason, he said his club will not open against West Frankfort again next year.

"I'M looking for someone we can really compete against, someone

But Madison Wins Friday

Bulldogs, Trojans battle to tie

MADISON. — By all rights, Thursday's high-school soccer game between Madison and Waterloo should have ended in a 2-2 tie.

Waterloo Coach Kevin Dooley doesn't think it should have. Madison Coach Gene Briggs was happy that it did, and the final statistics clearly revealed what was already obvious to those who watched the game — the Bulldogs clearly dominated the contest.

But what statistics didn't show from Thursday's game was the intensity of Madison's play. Sure, the Bulldogs outshot the Trojans 19-9 through regulation time and then two five-minute overtimes. And yes, Waterloo's goalie was only called upon to make one save while Madison's stopped 12, but none of that matters when it doesn't change the score.

WHAT DOES matter is intensity. That intangible factor which never appears on the stat sheet, but all too often decides the game.

Thursday, Madison was the team with intensity. And although that intensity was not the deciding factor in the game, had the Trojans been without it it could have been the deciding factor — for Waterloo.

In the midst of Thursday's home opener, the Trojans discovered and rediscovered a few athletes who displayed intensity, that extreme desire to excel.

Goalie Patrick Glasper, Jerry Gushieff and Mark Martinez.

"GLASPER made a heck of a lot of saves today," Briggs said after the game. "He was the highlight of the game for us. It's just too bad that we couldn't have won it."

As for Gushieff and Martinez, Briggs had praise for them too. "Jerry's one of those kids. One who although he's a freshman, has considerable soccer experience. He's had five years experience playing and it showed here today," the Trojan coach said of Gushieff.

Mark's another one who has experience playing the game. He's been a three-year starter for us and is continuing to improve. What makes me really happy is the way he's been working at the game."

Briggs said, "He knows he's gonna start, but he's not sitting back on that. He's continually trying to improve his game."

IN SHORT, the three were most responsible for Madison's success, or more importantly the lack of Waterloo's.

When Glasper wasn't stopping nearly everything slapped his way, Martinez and Gushieff were pressuring the Waterloo defense with attacks of their own.

Martinez put Madison on the board in the second quarter when he swatted a penalty kick past Waterloo's Jeff Reynolds to tie the game at one. And Gushieff, a 5-foot-11-inch freshman, headed in the game-tying goal in the fourth quarter.

Through the first quarter, both teams played nearly even, but as the game wore on Waterloo became more dominant.

THROUGH the first quarter, the Trojans even outshot the Bulldogs, 3-2. But as play progressed that balance waned and eventually favored the Bulldogs.

By the second quarter, Waterloo's dominance prevailed as Bulldog forward, Tom Schaefer, beat Glasper on a booming line drive. The shot was the final of four attempts at the Trojan goal during a 20-second span.

Seemingly lapsing on defense, Waterloo's goal momentarily put disoriented Madison. Apparently somewhat shocked by the goal, the Trojans remained listless for nearly four minutes before Martinez sank the penalty kick to tie the score at one and give the Trojans back some much-needed confidence.

"WHERE they down?" Briggs said coming back about his team after Waterloo's initial goal. "Anytime a team is scored upon there's going to be some depression. There may have been some letdown, but I was happy the way we came back to tie it just shortly after."

The score remained tied until the fourth quarter when the Bulldogs once again called upon Schaefer to put them ahead.

At the 64:17 mark, the Bulldog barrage began. It lasted for more than 45 seconds before it ended and, when it did, Waterloo was again on top. This time, however, Waterloo's goal came on a penalty kick. After Madison was called for a hand ball near the goal mouth, Schaefer pushed the ball past Glasper for the go ahead goal.

BUT, just as it was in the first quarter, moments after falling behind, the Trojans came roaring back. The tying goal came just three minutes later, at 68:36, when Gushieff took Brian Brown's crossing shot and headed it past Reynolds for the goal.

The fourth quarter soon thereafter expired as did the two five-minute overtime periods. The Trojans, although not as experienced as Waterloo, held on for the tie.

"I would have liked to win, but I'll take a tie rather than a loss any day," Briggs said after the game.

The following evening, Friday, the Trojans picked up their first win of the season as they defeated St. Charles (Mo.) West High School 3-2.

Scoring on two goals by Mark Martinez and the third by Brian Brown, the Trojans evened their season mark at 1-1-1. James Isaac picked up the assist on Martinez's first goal while Gushieff assisted with the Trojans' second and third goals.

Tuesday, the Trojans are scheduled to meet the Bethalto Eagles in Bethalto, but because of a teachers' strike in that community, the game may not be played. Madison's next scheduled game is Friday, Sept. 14, when it will host Maplewood at 4 p.m.

Band members marching on despite strike

Last week I did a story which reported on the current Granite City teachers' strike and its impact on Granite City High's athletic teams. The headline above the story read: "GCHS athletes practicing despite strike."

The intent of the story was not to forget or alienate any other of GCHS' extra-curricular teams and organizations, but, simply, as sports editor, the athletic teams were the focus of my story.

Anyway, three high school band students came by the Press-Record office Thursday afternoon and

Sports on the Run

By Al Gerstenecker

politely informed me that they, too, were practicing despite the strike.

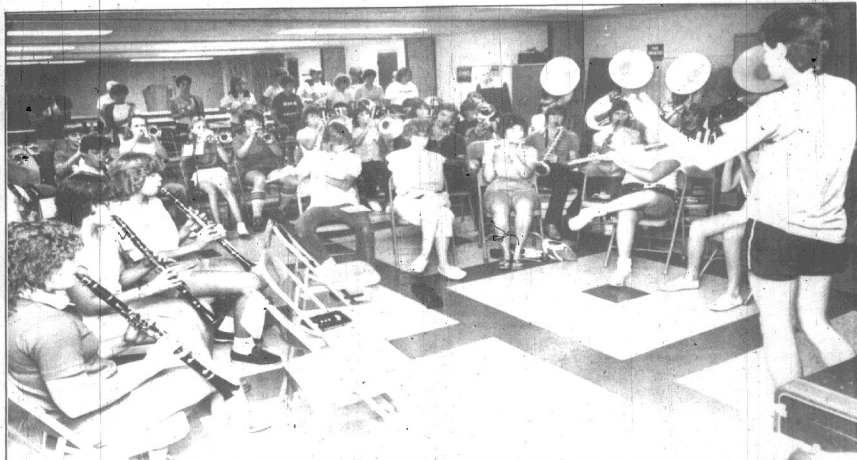

Sure enough, I had overlooked them. But as I talked with the three they brought up some interesting things about the strike and how it affected them which should now be discussed.

Not only are they also missing valuable practice time as are the fall sports teams, but the setback for them is not just seasonal. It may very well affect their entire year.

Sure, the fall sports teams may be casualties of the strike but it's unlikely that the teachers' strike in the fall will effect winter basketball and wrestling and spring baseball and track. Whereas the same can't be said about the band people who've carefully arranged their performance and competition schedule in such a manner that one performance is a tune up for the stiffer one that follows.

In all, the GCHS band, has arranged 51, that's right fifty-one, performances and competition through the graduation ceremony 1985. It's a lot, and admittedly, I had no idea that their performances were so numerous.

So, like their extra-curricular counterparts on the playing fields, they too have taken to self-directed practices. They and the GCHS Rifle Squad, Pom Pon squads and the cheerleaders.

Members of the GCHS band practicing Friday

Like other teams, they're practicing twice daily. Once in the morning, at Namsoki United Methodist Church on Pontoon Road, and in the evening at Worthen Park, where they have recently lined the field so they can rehearse their halftime shows for the football games.

In all, about 75 percent of the band members have shown up for the practices.

In addition to discussing the disadvantages of not having the opportunity to practice, the three said they have experienced some difficulty in retrieving instruments and other personal belongings left in the school prior to the strike. Reportedly, as many 10 instruments belonging to students remained in the building after the strike had been called and, say band members, they have had little luck retrieving those instruments.

During the weekend, I tried, without much success, to contact band director Joe Owens and ask him about the problem. When I couldn't contact Owens, I tried GCHS principal Gib Walmsey. Walmsey was more than helpful.

"That's absolutely not so," Walmsey said the students not being able to retrieve instruments still in the school.

"All they need to do is come by the high school and ask. We'll let them get whatever personal belongings they have there. The school office has been performing its regular duties throughout the strike and will continue to do so.

"Should they have any trouble retrieving their personal belongings, they should call the school office and ask to speak to me. We'll arrange for them to get whatever they've left," Walmsey said.

Addressing the question of why teachers were permitted to walk in the Labor Day parade when band students were not, Walmsey said he did not want to risk violating the Illinois State High School Association's rules for strikes.

"When the topic of the parade came up we called the IHSAA and talked with (IHSAA official) Dave Frey. He informed us that should the band members march in the parade it would violate that strike policy for extra-curricular activities.

"We're not trying to keep the kids from performing, we're trying to safeguard their eligibility," Walmsey said.

As one band member said, "the teachers may be striking, but we're still marching on."

Indeed they are.

Bucks, rains dampen Stars' season opener

By CHARLIE SKAER of the Press-Record

GODFREY — An afternoon downpour in Godfrey soaked soccer players from host Lewis and Clark Community College and visiting Granite City Center during the opening game Saturday in the Midwest Junior College Athletic Association.

Perhaps the downpour was only appropriate — the Lewis and Clark Bucks have reigned over the GCC Stars since the two teams began squaring off in the sport.

Saturday's game was no different. Along with the drenching came a barrage of goals that drowned the Stars' hopes of defeating Lewis and Clark for the first time. The Bucks sloshed their way to a 6-1 victory.

THE RAIN, which began just minutes after the start of the match, continued throughout the remainder of the contest. Fans quickly fled from the bleachers and into their cars to watch the action in a dry environment.

"We played in one similar game last year, but this was quite a downpour," said GCC coach Larry Petri. "The weather took over the game. It became a run-and-gun type of game."

Petri, however, wasn't blaming the wetness for the loss.

"Lewis and Clark would probably have come out on top," he said. "Who knows? Maybe it would have been worse."

THE BUCKS jumped out on top with two quick goals by sophomore Steve Stocker. The Lewis and Clark forward, who is one of five returning lettermen on the squad, scored his first goal at 3:48 on a shot that hit the left post and bounced into the net.

Stocker's second goal came a few minutes later at 7:21 on a pass from teammate Mike Donnelly.

"The team was responsive to our game plan of a quick start," said Lewis and Clark coach Ed Huneke. "I had asked them for that before the game. I was happy that they followed through."

The sudden lead gave the Bucks the initial momentum, something the Stars could not overcome.

"I WAS kind of disappointed," said Petri. "I thought we'd make a better showing."

They just executed so well. They came in to the game and were ready to go. Stocker got them going with the two goals. That kept them hyped up."

GCC, meanwhile, couldn't muster any offense. The stars' shots were as infrequent as the letups in the rain.

"We had our breakdowns," said Petri. "Every time we tried to do something, they were reacting to it. The big problem was that they were waiting for everything — we couldn't build our attack."

LEWIS and Clark, which finished third last year in the National Junior College Athletic Association playoffs, made it 3-0 with a goal from the left side by freshman Chris Owsley at 24:14.

GCC latched on its first goal of the game at 31:43 when returning letterman Tim Dean rifled a shot past Bucks' goalkeeper Rob Wilhelm. Forward Ben Nolan received the assist on the play.

"We never scored against Lewis and Clark in the past two years," said Petri, who led GCC to a 12-8 season last year and coached GCC's predecessors, the Belleville Area College Dutchmen, to a 6-13 season the prior year. "So it's an encouraging note that we scored."

"We battled back and got one ourselves. I thought if we could get another one, the momentum would swing our way. But it broke our backs when they got the fourth one."

FRESHMAN Mark Moser boosted the Bucks with the team's fourth goal at 39:20, with the first half ending with the 4-1 score.

As the rain held steady throughout the contest, both sets of players had their share of slipping and sliding. However, the Stars did manage to penetrate past the midfield more often in the second half.

But it was Lewis and Clark, that added points on the board. Moser made the score 5-1 at 76:39 on a pass across the middle by Stocker for the assist. Stocker then scored his third goal of the day at 88:36, rounding out the final 6-1 score.

"I was expecting it to be a little closer," said Huneke, in his 10th year as coach of the Bucks. "But these are the pleasant surprises."

said his team has the potential to make it to the national finals despite the high number of first-year players. But the coach does have experience in key players, including Stocker who led the team last year with 15 goals and 10 assists.

The Lewis and Clark coach also credited midfielder Bill Becher with an excellent game.

"Bill is an outstanding midfielder," said Huneke. "He's just good at keeping control of the game at midfield."

For Petri, his team's goal of defeating Lewis and Clark will be put to the test when the two teams meet Oct. 11 at GCC.

"They didn't throw any surprises at us," said Petri, whose team lost 7-0 in last year's opener against the Bucks. "I think we were more capable of stopping them."

The Stars will travel to northern Illinois to battle three Chicago teams later this week. They will then take on Forest Park Community College in an away game Sept. 18. The Stars open their home season Sept. 22 against Lincoln.

In College SoccerAces deal Cougars first loss

EVANSVILLE — The Evansville University Purple Aces, newcomers to the game of big-time United States collegiate soccer, proved here Sunday afternoon that their 13-5 record last season was no fluke.

All the Purple Aces did was to spot the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville a first-half goal and then come roaring back to humble the perennial national powerful Cougar kickers by a 3-1 score. The go-ahead and winning goals for Evansville came in the contest's final seven minutes and Coach Bob Guelker's SIUE kickers appeared to be completely whipped.

The Cougars, now 2-1 for the season, appeared ready to crush the Aces mid-way into the first half when first Steve Trittschuh and Dan Malloy scored. But, when the official ruled the Trittschuh's score wasn't good because he was offside, the royal and noisy group of SIUE fans on hand for the overcast, muddy and rainy game, collectively knew that their team was in for a rough day.

Even after Malloy had finally gotten the Cougars on the board at 30:19 on a "header" from John Stone, the Evansville players performed more like they were ahead than trailing.

But, the Cougars didn't panic and were very much in the game until just a little over 17 minutes remained. At this point, the Evansville team appeared to increase the pressure they were applying on the Cougars.

The Purple Aces' pressure finally paid off when Mike Mikes of St. Louis booted in the equalizer from in front of the penalty on a solo effort.

But the Evansville fans, sensing a big upset, went wild. With just seven minutes remaining, Evansville's Peter Gurelich, unassisted, gave the Aces the lead, 2-1. And, less than two minutes later, Andy Norton of England broke the Cougars' hearts by jumping on a "garbage" ball and slipping it in past Dave Cappetta. It was Cappetta's most nerve-racking game of his college career.

The muddy field effected the game's early going. Neither team registered a shot on goal the first 15 minutes. But, in the final five minutes of the first half, the Aces produced a barrage of shots on goal against the SIUE keeper which foretold what was going to happen.

The SIUE soccer schedule now goes into a crucial period. Coach Bob Guelker and his kickers face an awesome four-game slate of "on the road" contests against a quartet of schools all of whom most surely will be "ranked" during the season.

Next weekend, Saturday and Sunday, the Cougars will play in the Duke University Classic, tangling with the host Blue Devils the first day, then meeting the always tough University of South Florida. Then, just a week later, the SIUE kickers head for Texas. Friday night at Houston, they'll battle it out with an old and bitter foe, the Mustangs of Southern Methodist. Saturday, they'll move on to nearby Denton, Texas to play the Mean Green of North Texas State in a 2 p.m. game. Game time at SMU is 7 p.m.

The really first opportunity that the SIUE student body will get to see their soccer players will be Friday night, Sept. 20th, at Edwardsville at Cougar Field against the Hawks of Quincy College in a 7:30 p.m. battle.

Charlie Day of East Alton cleaned house in the street cars, winning the feature event and the heat race. Following Day's Dodge Challenger for second in the feature event was the lone lady driver, Sharon Rhodes of Bunker Hill and Judy Steyh of Cedar Hill. Mo, fourth, Jim Wilson of Granite City finished in the third spot.

Many drivers from other tracks who have closed for the season are expected to be on hand Friday night. The season championship race will be Friday, Sept. 21.

week, Monday through Thursday, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. The fee for the workouts, which are for women 18 years and older, are $10 per month.

Persons wishing to register for the classes, should call the recreation center at 451-1440.

Gymnastic registration

The Madison Recreation Center, located at the corner of Seventh and Lee Streets, has slated Saturday, Oct. 6, as registration day for its girls' fall gymnastics program.

Registration for the program, which is 50 cents a session, begins at 1 p.m.

Shirley Greer will instruct the classes.

Slecka on MacMurray team

Jon Slecka of Granite City High School in Granite City, will be among the more than 50 players competing for a position this fall on MacMurray College's first-ever football team.

Slecka is listed as a defensive lineman by Robin Cooper, head football coach at the Jacksonville college. According to Cooper, Slecka rates an excellent chance to see considerable action with the Highlanders this season.

The upcoming football campaign will mark the first one in MacMurray's 138-year history. The Highlanders, who compete in Division III of the N.C.A.A., will open an eight-game slate of junior varsity contests Sept. 16 at Illinois Wesleyan.

Slecka is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slecka of 3849 John Glenn.

SIDELINE PASS. While St. Louis Football Cardinal left defensive end Al "Bubba" Baker is held at bay, Buffalo quarterback Joe Ferguson throws this sideline pass to Booker Moore during second quarter action Sunday at Busch Stadium. Ferguson escaped the grasp on Baker on this particular play, but didn't later in the game as Baker sent the Buffalo quarterback to the locker room with a broken nose. The Cardinals handily won their home opener 37-7.

who is about in the same stage as we are," said Smith. "I'm not saying we can't compete against West Frankfort. I'm just saying right now we're just a little too small to be going against them."

Madison had its chances to get back in the ball game. One opportunity came when Young, one of the Madison players working offense and defense, recovered a West Frankfort fumble to give the Trojans the ball on their own 40 yard line.

But Madison's offense couldn't move the ball into West Frankfort territory. In fact, the team went backward as the Trojans were called for being offside.

DURING Madison's next possession, the Redbirds once again stopped their opponents from scoring. Lonzo Nelson rushed for eight yards, the longest run of the half for the Trojans. The run gave Madison its lone first down of the third quarter.

Just four plays later, Petrosky was punting for the Trojans after Madison gained only two yards during the set of downs. But his kick went low and directly into the line. Both teams went scrambling for the ball and West Frankfort wound up with the ball on Madison's 20 yard line.

Although Madison halted West Frankfort's scoring drive when Robert Lott intercepted a pass, the Redbirds received possession of the ball minutes later when Marshall scrambled with the ball on a fourth-down run and was whistled for touching the out-of-bounds line.

WEST Frankfort quarterback Dye Smith, who began the possession at the Madison 18 yard line, tossed a pass to Jerry McPhail in the end zone five plays later. The Redbirds connected on the two-point conversion for the final 34-14 score.

In a look at statistics, Young led the Trojans with 58 yards rushing and 71 yards receiving. Jeff Bridick led on defense with nine tackles.

Smith said he'll be working on conditioning in practice.

"I could say we played good, but you can't start letting the players accept it as a win," said Smith. "I'm going to be pushing them real hard so they make it through the fourth quarter."

Hearing on Bi-State bus schedule changes in October

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler told city council members last week that a public hearing for proposed changes in the Bi-State Transit bus schedule will be conducted sometime in October. The site and date of the hearing are to be announced shortly.

He urged aldermen to obtain reactions to the changes from their constituents. The proposal not only includes a deletion of some bus routes, but the addition of some new routes.

The highlights of the proposals are as follows:

There are four proposed changes for the 533 West Granite route. First, to eliminate service to the West Granite area (Niedringhaus, Poplar, Bryan and 20th streets). Second, to reroute the buses in downtown Granite City over Madison Avenue to 20th, to Delmar, 18th and then Edison. Third, to reroute through the city of Madison, to serve a transit-dependent neighborhood near Third, Alton and 10th streets. Finally, a minor reroute in Brooklyn, to remove a low ridership and circuitous segment.

Recommended changes on the 530X Pontoon Express include starting service from the Granite City Center on Maryville Road. Service will be provided to the neighborhoods along Maryville Road, both north and south of Pontoon Road. The line will be rerouted through Madison, along Edwardsville Road, Alton Avenue and Second Street, to provide service to a transit-dependent neighborhood. Also included in this proposal are the locations of park-and-ride facilities along the route.

Recommended changes for the 530 McKinley Bridge route are to remove the three low ridership deviations on the route. In particular, service will be deleted from the Granite City Center, Wilson Park and North Venice deviations. A total rerouting of the line through downtown St. Louis also is proposed. The route would operate over Convention Plaza, Locust, Market and Tucker Boulevard in downtown St. Louis.

The recommendation for the 532 East Granite Route is the most complicated. The proposal is to split the route into two end-to-end routes and expand service into new residential and shopping areas.

The first route—North Granite Shuttle—will provide service between downtown Granite City and Granite City Center via Wilson Park and Nameoki Village Shopping Center. This is designed to serve the transit-dependent neighborhoods near downtown Granite City and provide new service to the neighborhoods north of Pontoon Road. This route also will provide timed transfer opportunities for both the East Granite Shuttle and McKinley Bridge routes at Nameoki Village and in downtown Granite City.

The second route—East Granite Shuttle—will provide service between downtown Granite City and Nameoki Village via Worthen Park. This route still serves the areas previously served by the eastern leg of the old East Granite route, but also provides new service to areas east of Nameoki and St. Clair Roads. This route will meet both the McKinley Bridge and North Granite Shuttle at Nameoki Village and in downtown Granite City.

Pace ahead of '83-84—Trimpe

The pace of activity at Granite City Center is exceeding the pace when the two-year college center was being established a year ago.

Wilbur R.L. Trimpe, acting administrator, told Granite City Rotarians last week that GCC has enrolled 2,055 students for the fall of 1984.

These students have signed up for more than 14,000 credit hours, an average load of two classes or six to seven credit hours, Trimpe added.

During the Rotary luncheon meeting conducted by President Phil Ross, Glenn Abenroth was honored on his 50th wedding anniversary and Dean Maberry on his 47th wedding anniversary.

Next Tuesday's club meeting will be at 5 p.m. at the Granite City Army Installation, William Frazier announced.

It was related that Supt. Frank Kraus, School Board Pres. David Partney, Finance Director Norman Owca and Don Lindberg of Blunt, Ellis & Loewi will speak on Granite City school finance at the September prayer breakfast.

Three men charged in alcohol related incident

Three men were arrested last week, after Granite City police observed them at the Corner Liquor Store, 2500 Nameoki Road.

Upon investigation, the police confiscated a quart bottle of beer and an open bottle of beer from the car.

John P. Moore, 19, of 114 Holiday Mobile Home Park, was charged with illegal transportation of liquor.

Jeffrey A. Willoughby, 18, of 2104 Nameoki Road, was charged with illegal possession of alcohol and being a minor in possession of alcohol.

Thomas A. Kasson, 18, was served with a warrant alleging failure to appear in court on a possession of cannabis charge.

Moore and Willoughby were released on $52 cash bond.

3-CAR CRASH RESULTS IN INJURIES TO ONE

Three Granite Cityans were involved in an accident on State Aid 35 recently, about two miles west of Route 157.

Melba Craddock, 53, of 3100 Wayne Ave., was the only party injured in the crash. Mrs. Craddock was east-bound on State Aid 35 following Sheila M. Blankley, 23, of 2605 Cayuga St., when Miss Blankley's car stalled in the road.

Mrs. Craddock swerved to the left to avoid hitting Miss Blankley and was stuck from behind by a car driven by her husband, Walter B. Craddock, 58. Mrs. Craddock was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center. Her husband was charged by Illinois State Police with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

VENICE POLICE CHARGE THREE FROM ST. LOUIS

After clocking a car on radar recently, Venice police stopped the vehicle at Broadway and Oriole Streets and charged the driver, David Allen Lewis, 24, of St. Louis, with speeding and illegal transportation of alcohol.

Passengers in the auto, Peggy D. Stevens, 27, and Tommy G. Rose, 24, both of St. Louis, were charged with illegal possession of alcohol. All three posted $52 cash bonds and were released pending court appearances in Granite City.

Newly-elected President Evadine Graville opened the monthly meeting of the Auxiliary Post 204 Auxiliary with the Pledge of Allegiance. Chaplain Neil Hollenhorst followed with a prayer.

Secretary Pat Hartman read a report on the state convention at Rosemont, Ill., in June. Awards went to Carolyn Gerlach and Hazel Modrusic, second place in community service, and Public Relations Officer Judy Modrusic, third place for a poster photo contest.

A memorial service was conducted for auxiliary charter member Lucille McClelland, with 15 members attending.

Hospital Chairman Evadine Graville reported that two members filed records in the pharmacy at John Cockeran Hospital for a total of 56 hours. In addition, $2,000 was donated to the John Cockeran Hospitality Cart. $100 was donated to the Vaughn children who need help with medical expenses. $388 was donated to Timmy Davis for a cardiac monitor and $50 was given for carnival tickets at the Ethnic Festival for needy children.

A motion was made and passed to purchase a food processor for the kitchen. Auxiliary members are needed to work in the kitchen and to bake cakes. The deadline for paying membership dues is Dec. 31.

Maxine Skinner was approved as an associate member. Hazel Modrusic reported 28 hours for community service, which includes the auxiliary members who ran errands for senior citizens and a child who was taken to the emergency room.

Sandra Wilkinson, the chapter's regent, will welcome those attending, as will Dorothy Buenger, the chapter's only living charter member. This will be Mrs. Zimmerman's first visit to the chapter since her installation as State Regent of Illinois at the 92nd Continental Congress in April of 1983 in Washington, D.C.

During her two-year term as vice regent, she chaired the Illinois Super at Continental Congress and arranged for the annual DAR Days at four locations in the state. She has been the personal page for two state regents and for a national president general.

Mrs. Zimmerman has been active in the Business and Professional Women's Club, the Taylorville Women's Club and AAUW. She is a member of the PEO Sisterhood.

With a master's degree from the University of Illinois, Mrs. Zimmerman taught high school home economics for 20 years. She also has served her church, the Morrisonville United Methodist Church, in many capacities.

An interest in genealogy has led her to membership in a large number of lineage societies, and she currently serves as an officer in several of them.

Louis Sullivan ornaments to be exhibited at SIUE

By KIM REDEKER

"Louis H. Sullivan, Union with Nature," a group of ornaments designed by the American architect for his buildings, will be on display at the University Center Gallery at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville from Sept. 17 to Oct. 5.

Sullivan's multi-storied structures were the major contributions to the development of the skyscraper form. His most distinctive mark as an artist, according to David Huntley, director of the Office of University Museums, was the development of the exquisite and intricate ornamentation which he considered integral parts of the design.

"LOUIS HENRI Sullivan's artistic virtuosity is revealed in his exhibiting which includes ornaments in terra cotta, wood and iron," Huntley noted.

Born in Boston in 1856, Sullivan spent much of his childhood on his grandparents' farm, where he acquired his "love for nature." The firm in Chicago, of which he was chief design partner, designed 120 buildings, among them residences, office buildings, stores, factories, warehouses, libraries, theaters and an exposition hall. Although his main office was in Chicago, Sullivan's work extended to such cities as St. Louis, New Orleans and Buffalo.

SIUE has mounted this exhibition from its definitive collection of Sullivan artifacts. The university received the majority of its holdings in 1966 as a result of the efforts of Richard Nickel, an architectural photographer and historian.

NICKEL UNDERTOOK the task of identifying Sullivan buildings scheduled for destruction. For nearly two decades, he negotiated with owners, wrecking companies, unions, and workmen for pieces of ornament before they were destroyed.

Ironically, Nickel lost his life in the collapse of the old Stock Exchange Building in Chicago, attempting to recover Sullivan ornaments. The 50 objects on display are taken from such things as pediments, door panels, newel posts, ceiling screens and panels, elevator grills and pushplates, kickplates, light fixtures, windows, chimneys and friezes.

After the SIUE presentation, the show will tour various institutions across the midwest until Jan. 31, 1986. Colleges, libraries, public schools, local art organizations and court house lobbies will host the exhibition, which has been made possible by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency.

The board also approved retaining the firm of Drexel Burnham Lambert, Inc. of Chicago as managing underwriter for the refunding proposals, substituting for the firm of Becker Paribas, which has relinquished its appointment to that position. Becker Paribas has merged with another firm since being appointed by the SIUE Board in July.

DONALD W. WILSON, board treasurer and system financial officer, said the final benefit to the university will depend upon the status of the bond market, but savings of several million dollars are anticipated. He said the objective of the refunding proposal is to free up large sums from the university's debt service reserve funds that can be invested at higher rates of interest, resulting in savings for the university.

The board authorized the issuance of up to $20 million in SIUE Housing and Auxiliary Facilities System Revenue Refunding Bonds, series 1984A, with the proceeds to be used to provide for the payment of outstanding advance refunded bonds, funds for the Debt Service Reserve account and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions.

Preliminary statements will be prepared by the managing underwriter, and the new bonds will be offered for sale in September.

The three-day seminar is scheduled at the Henry VIII Inn and Lodge, located at 4690 Lindbergh. Sessions will meet from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. each day.

SENIOR LEVEL staff from DBD Systems, Inc., a well-known firm specializing in data base management, will instruct the course. Coursework will include a survey of access methods and data structures, use of the Access Requirements Table, designing a logical data base, determining access and retrieval methods, data collection and interpretation and analysis of the data.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting James Miller Jr., director of the SIUE Center for Management Studies, by calling 1-692-2668.

Robertson announces United Way campaign leaders

DREW KARANDJEFF

Eric Robertson, campaign chairman of the upcoming Tri-Cities Area United Way drive, has announced the leading appointments for his campaign organization.

Each vice-chairman will head a group consisting of division leaders, unit leaders and volunteer solicitors to cover all prospective donors in the United Way campaign which begins tomorrow.

Jon and Drew Karandjeff will co-chair the retail business, commercial, and private donor group. Drew, president of Granite City Trust and Savings Bank and Central Bank System, Inc., is an active member of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, Granite City Rotary Club, American Institute of Banking, Robert Morris and Associates, Coro Foundation and the St. Louis Regional Commerce and Growth Association. He is a past president of the Chamber of Commerce, president of the Rotary Club and treasurer of the Coro Foundation.

His wife, Joni, is an active volunteer with the local United Way.

JONI KARANDJEFF

serving as the co-chairman of the Budget and Allocations Committee. Joni also is a member of the board of directors of the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce and Parents Plus. She is a past president of the Rotary Ann and an active volunteer of various Niedringhaus Methodist Church activities as well as P.E.O. and the Ridgway Society.

Sister Mary Thomas, Jirauch C.D.P., will head the professional group. She has served as president of St. Elizabeth Medical Center for 24 years. She holds membership with the American College of Hospital Administrators. She earned a bachelor's degree in nursing and a masters degree in hospital administration from St. Louis University.

Albert Hudzik, assistant vice president and secretary of the board of First Granite City National Bank, will serve as the head of government employees, clubs and organizations. Hudzik formerly held the position of controller for the city of Madison. He is a past president and treasurer of the Madison Lions Club and Madison Venice Rotary Club.

J. R. Parmley will chair the group to solicit industrial, construction, and transportation accounts. Parmley, retired in 1982, formerly held the position of general superintendent, maintenance and services at Granite City Steel. He is a past president of American Iron and Steel Engineers' and was active on various committees with the Granite City Chamber of Commerce before his retirement. He presently serves on the Advisory Committee at St. Elizabeth Medical Center and is a member of Southwestern Industrial Association. Parmley's 32 years with Granite City Steel and past background with solicitation of United Way industrial accounts will provide valuable experience and know-how to the 1984 campaign, Robertson said.

Shirley A. Adams, sales manager and public relations director for WGNU Radio, Granite City, will serve as general vice-chairman of the 1984 campaign under Robertson.

She has been involved with community activities over the past 25 years. She is a member of the National Radio Broadcasters' Association, a charter member of the Old Six Mile Historical Society, a member of the advisory council for Parents Plus and is working with a community group in an effort to return "Teen Town" to the YMCA. She is a representative of both the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce and the Women's Division of the Chamber, as well as a charter member of the Gateway Business and Professional Women's Club. A member of the Chamber's board of directors, she has served on their "Community Betterment Committee," and was public relations chairman for 1983 and 1984 Annual Clean Up Campaign. She is especially interested in the welfare of children, senior citizens and underprivileged in our community and has headed numerous projects to benefit those areas in the past. Robertson noted. Shirley also has been selected to lead a committee for special fundraising projects within the campaign.

SHIRLEY ADAMS

The campaign solicits pledges to support 16 human service organizations in the Madison, Venice, Granite City, Pontoon Beach and Mitchell areas.

Town & Country Fair to benefit Channel 24

Dale Evans, heroine of husband Roy Rogers' western movies, comes to St. Louis, Saturday, Sept. 15, to star at KNLC Channel 24's Town and Country Fair. Participants in the fair, and their guests, will receive free tickets to Miss Evans' 7:30 performance at Kiel Auditorium.

"Everyone will have fun while helping feed hungry people, the elderly, handicapped and homeless," according to Larry Rice, Channel 24 president. "Everyone from the Channel 24 Missouri-Illinois viewing area is invited. We want city folks to meet and share with their country cousins."

Proceeds from Miss Evans' concert will go to KNLC-TV. Home canning, baking, and fresh fruit and vegetable entries in fair competition will be distributed to needy families by New Life Evangelistic Center, an affiliate of Channel 24.

Boys and girls age 17 and younger are asked to bring canned goods. The biggest donation of canned food will earn a bicycle or its equivalent value in other prize merchandise.

Channel 24 will set up a picnic area in the park. Soft drinks and watermelon slices will be available for 25-cents each. "Twenty-five cents," Rice explains, "in honor of KNLC Channel 25, a newly-licensed Christian family television station under construction near Jefferson City."

"We hope to collect enough food so thousands of good people in western Illinois and eastern Missouri, rural city, will not have to go to bed hungry," Rice says. "We need cash donations as well as gifts of food."

Entry forms for the fair's home economics competitions are available by writing or visiting KNLC-TV Channel 24, 1411 Locust St., in St. Louis, or by telephoning 1-314-436-2424.

Ribbons will be awarded for baking, canning and gardening. Baking categories: bread, cake, pie, cookies and doughnuts. Canning categories are fruit, vegetables, preserves, jellies, jams, marmalades, conserves and apple butter, pickles and relishes.

Fruit gardening: grapes, pears, apricots, peaches, apples. Vegetable gardening: potatoes, sweet potatoes, onions, tomatoes, sweet peppers, eggplant, summer squash, winter squash, melons, pumpkin, watermelon and sweet corn.

"But don't limit your entries to these categories," Rice urges. "Bring anything edible and nourishing to the big fair." A special award category for "hot weather" sandwiches acknowledges the fact that New Life Evangelistic Center feeds sandwiches to hundreds of homeless men and women every week. Cream pies, sandwiches made with mayonnaise, and other foods that spoil in warm weather should not be entered in the fair, Rice cautioned.

MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO DISORDERLY CONDUCT

Called to 20th and Adams streets in reference to a man with a gun, officers found Samuel N. Holland, 24, of 20th Missouri Ave., sitting against a building. He matched a description given police but did not have a weapon in his possession.

A few moments later, Holland was seen talking with another person and the butt of a weapon was visible under his vest. It was alleged.

A .177-caliber air pistol was confiscated from Holland, who pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct and was fined $50 in a court appearance.

Billick is charged with harassment by telephone

Harassment by telephone was alleged by Granite City police last week as they arrested Arthur G. "Binky" Billick, 31, of 2827 Pershing Blvd.

The initial complaint from his neighbors was lodged at 11:15 a.m. Sept. 1. Issuance of a warrant followed.

Associate Judge Nicholas Byron presided at a hearing and approved releasing Billick on recognizance.

MADISON MAN IS CHARGED WITH ASSAULT ON OFFICER

Calvin John Hall, 40, of 104 Allen St., Madison, was charged with disorderly conduct and assault recently, after he threatened a Madison police officer.

Hall met Sergeant Charles Bridick at the Madison Police Department and an argument ensued. Hall allegedly became abusive and was told to stop by Bridick. Hall grabbed the officer and then Bridick forcefully removed him from the premises, according to official reports. Hall returned later and again allegedly started an argument, made threats of bodily harm to Bridick and was loud. He was placed under arrest.
